We feel
The Urge
To sing a bit
Of Conventions.

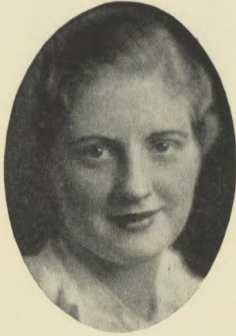

You know:
There's something
In getting together,
And filing
One's brains
Against the rough
Edges of another's
That wears away
Some o' the Chinaman
In Us—
And we loose
Our ancestral chains
And skip ahead!
For somehow,
Belonging
To a big Family
'S better 'n
Being
An only child.

Secrets! Secrets! Secrets!

YOU are all going to Asheville for recreation as well as work. And, so you may return to your childhood delight in secrets, this issue doesn't teem with the details of program and play plans. Take our word for it, these are all enticing and alluring, and warranted to stimulate, amuse, inform, and recreate.

You'll find here all about how to get there, every possible detail as to trains and time schedules. And a few glimpses at the fun en route and the things the hostesses plan for your delight. Everything else will be revealed when you get there. But, if there are questions you must have answered before that gorgeous (we hope) June 28, why either the convention manager, or the Grand secretary, or the Executive committee will do their best to furnish answers to your queries.

District IX invites you to come and experience the hospitality of their young-old South.

Hostess Executive Committee

Since the preliminary announcement in the March issue, the personnel of this committee, which will direct and lead in your entertainment and comfort, has been completed.

We take pleasure in introducing to you—

Mrs Sarah Cady Patten, Alpha Epsilon, chairman

Mrs Alleen Rice Gladish, Beta, secretary

Mrs Edna Rising Jackson, Kappa, registration and credentials

Mrs Mary Bishop Ingebritsen, Lambda, marshal

Mrs Emily Dunbar Griffith, Alpha Delta, courtesy

Mrs Helen Scanlon Wright, Alpha Eta, social events

Mrs Florence Buck Fuller, Alpha Xi, publicity

Mrs Peggy Lavender Mann, Beta Rho, Kite editor

Aurelia Adams, Alpha, Kite business manager

Their work will be supplemented by special events in charge of hostess chapters and clubs, as follows—

Masque and Nike, New Orleans alumnæ, assisted by Miami and Jacksonville clubs
Athletic tournaments, Alpha Nu and Gamma Gamma

Masquerade, Beta Rho, assisted by Durham-Raleigh club

Rushing stunt contest, Alpha Phi

Exhibits, Nashville alumnæ, which will also be chief aid to Mrs Wright in banquet plans, assisted by Memphis club

Model initiation, Alpha Eta, assisted by Atlanta and Louisville clubs

Then Eleanor LeBlanc, Alpha Phi, will be music director for convention. The District president, Betty Sellers Moore, will see that the district is an active hostess and will welcome everyone herself.

Surprise!

Have you ever been in a real-live Southern show-boat? If not, we Southerners have in store for you the thrill of a life-time at the banquet this summer. Just be sure to tuck away in your bag some costume for this party.

Maybe you would like to be a pig-tailed pickaninny; or perhaps you would prefer to disguise yourself as a sweet plantation belle. Whatever it may be, come to our Show-boat frolic and have a gay time.

BETA RHO

Kites!!

This isn't about badges but about the convention newspaper, Theta Kite, which will make its twelfth biennial appearance at Grove Park Inn. It will tell all about what goes on at convention, who was there, and what they did. Their looks and personalities will also be revealed by those ambitious would-be newspaper women who will work under the direction of Peggy Lavender Mann as editor-in-chief.

You Thetas who must stay away from convention, had better subscribe for this unique newspaper. The subscription price is 50 cents for the edition, mailed to your home. Send your subscription to the Business manager, Aurelia Adams, Box L-M, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina. There will be a prize for the chapter that has the longest subscription list, too.

You who will be at convention, send no advance subscriptions, for your newspaper subscriptions are included in the registration fee.

Details

The Grove Park Inn

All the rooms in this inn are large, well equipped and comfortable. The meals are extremely good.

There is a flat rate of $6.50 a day for our convention. This is, of course, much lower than the regular rate. Many of the rooms can care easily for three and four girls, if such a grouping is desired. There are delightful rooms in a couple of cottages on the grounds which are available to us. If accommodation in one of these is particularly desired, request it when reservations are made. Each cottage will accommodate about fifteen.

Please make all reservations directly to the manager, Mr A. N. Barnett, and have them in by JUNE 20. Give him the names of each member of the party, of course.

Sports

The facilities for sport at Grove Park Inn are high class. The golf course adjoins the hotel grounds. The fee for play thereon is $1 a day. Swimming and tennis are done at the Asheville Country Club nearby. The former is free to Inn guests and the latter is 50 cents.

Horseback riders will be particularly delighted, as there are not only innumerable lovely places to ride, but very good horses to ride upon. The charge is $1.50 an hour.

Baggage

Baggage tags will be sent all visitors making hotel reservations. Upon them should be plainly marked both train and hotel accommodations.

There is no charge for the transportation of hand baggage at Asheville, but the owner will likely be parted from it, and it will be delivered directly to her room.

Trunks must be checked a day early. There will be a charge for transfer. Really, no one but the Grand Secretary has much excuse for bringing a trunk!

All express boxes, trunks, etc., must bear the sender's name and "Kappa Alpha Theta convention" in large letters.

Letters should be addressed in care of the convention, Grove Park Inn, Asheville, N.C.

Clothes

Bring your best dress for the banquet. Otherwise there will be no time nor place for anything except the simplest of sport clothes. There will be ample opportunity for the use of your sport equipment—bathing suit, golf clubs, tennis racquet, etc. Your travelling coat may come in handy for cool evenings.

Expense allowance to delegates

Each delegate will be sent a check in advance, based on the following allowance:

the railroad fare, on the "identification" basis, for the round trip; a lower berth, one way; 50 cents a meal for the number of meals indicated for a direct trip; the transportation to and from the hotel, and the hotel bill for five days at $6.50 a day.

The registration fee, of around $7.50 and all personal incidentals must be borne by the delegates as individuals.

All delegates must make their own hotel reservations, giving Mr Barnett the name of their room mate if they have chosen one. Otherwise, some other chapter's delegate will share the room.

Cost

The total hotel bill at the Inn will be $32.50. There will be a registration fee of around $7.50, which will cover all necessary incidentals, as tips to the hotel staff, cost of social functions, and subscription to the Kite.

The cost of getting to Asheville necessarily depends on the price of the railroad ticket or the automobile mileage. There are here added some of last year's summer rates, as a basis of estimate. Our fare-and-a-third certificates will give us better rates than these, however.

For an automobile trip, if two or more go together in a small car, it is safe to estimate $4 per day a person as the total cost of everything except wrecks. It can be done for much less, but $4 will take in all the sights, get you over the ground and provide comfortable but not stylish stopping places. Tourist homes are handy, as they entail no concern over the car, except locking it up. It is well, however, to look them over before settling down, as they vary as the sands of the sea.

Stopping in small towns, instead of large, also saves wear and tear as well as cost, if one plans to stay at hotels.

The hotel will furnish road maps of the state of North Carolina. A very satisfactory service is that of the Conoco Travel Bureau, Denver, Colo. They will send without cost marked maps of your whole trip, if you write them the points you want to touch.

Railroad rates—Important

The fraternity has been granted rates on what railroad men call "Identification Round Trip Plan." This involves some forehandedness on the part of the visitors, but it results in a nice saving in the total cost of the round trip ticket. It works out at about a fare and a third for the trip, and tickets may be bought going over one route and returning over another.

To obtain this rate, passengers must write to me for an identification certificate (Mrs Y. B. Huffman, 349 N. 35th Ave., Omaha, Neb.). Friends and members of our families who wish to may take advantage of the certificates, but the names of each must be specified when the request comes in. They will be returned, immediately, and should be presented to the ticket agent when the ticket is bought. It would be well to request certificates on the chance that they would be needed, rather than find yourself without the priceless slips if you want them at the last moment. They cost nothing, of course.

Special train

Thetas will concentrate from the north, east and west at Cincinnati, getting in there in the late afternoon from almost all points. The Theta Special will leave the terminal there over the Southern railway on the following schedule. Be sure all your reservations are in, to the agent named for your benefit, by JUNE 20.

Cincinnati Party

"Vas you effer in Zinzinnati?"

"No, I never was."

"Well come on let's go to Convention, for the Convention Special is going to stop in Cincinnati. I hear the Cincinnati Thetas are working over time to give us a good time in the five or six hours we will be with them.

"You see quite a good many Alpha Taus have attended conventions. In fact, the older alums are still saying, 'Well, when we went to Gearhart'—! Thus they challenge any convention to surpass that one in good times and variety of entertainment. Now this has put the committee on its mettle to make the short stay in Cincinnati, on the way to North Carolina, a unique experience.

"If we drive to Convention we are to go direct to the Netherlands-Plaza hotel where we will be taken care of.

"If we take the Convention Special our train will arrive in the terminal which has only been in operation a year. It is acknowledged to be one of the most complete and beautiful of terminals. We will spend some time right there viewing the famous mosaics which depict the history of transportation and also others that symbolize the city's chief industries.

"Then comes the first big thrill. We will be taken in private machines on a sightseeing tour, that will be headed by a Police motor escort! Did you ever think we would rate that? What fun it will be to go out the Parkway that winds along Cincinnati's hills, some of which are parked, others naturally wooded, and still others picturesquely built up with homes in quite an Old World manner; to the University of Cincinnati. This is one of the oldest Municipal Universities and here the cooperative system of education was originated.

"From there we drive to Mt. Storm for a view of the Northwestern Basin, a varied and unusual sight. Then with sirens screaming we start across the suburbs travelling another boulevard to two extensive parks, one overlooking the Ohio valley and the other the Little Miami valley. From the latter, we will look down upon the municipal airport and who knows but what they may have heard of our coming and put on some stunts for us!

"Then we'll drive by River Side Drive to Eden Park, one of the oldest and loveliest in the city and so to the Netherlands-Plaza hotel. Here a suite of rooms will be at our disposal as headquarters. A Dutch Treat dinner at $1.50 per plate, will be served. Now another secret! We are to be greeted by several city officials at this dinner, so you see this is to be no small affair! The girls of the college chapter are planning an entertainment for us during and after dinner.

"Doesn't all of this make you want to visit Zinzinnati? Let's sign this coupon and mail it immediately!"

Chapter Environment—V

WITH this article about the environment of Kappa chapter, which edited and published the first issue of this magazine in June 1885, the chapter environment series closes. The first article of the series dealt with William and Mary College, home of Beta Lambda, the oldest college in which Kappa Alpha Theta has a chapter. Next, Cornell, home of Iota, first chapter of a woman's fraternity in the east, an example of the combination of privately endowed and state supported colleges joined to form a great university. Then, the University of California at Los Angeles, Beta Xi's home, the youngest college in which Theta has a chapter. Next, the University of Toronto, home of Sigma, the chapter that made Kappa Alpha Theta international. The present article deals with the University of Kansas, an example of the great state universities.

University of Kansas

ENTRANCE TO THE AUDITORIUM

It is very nice to know
A Theta every place you go,
While pleasant chapters may be found
Most everywhere this land around.

CLARA LYNN FITCH, Kappa '99

THE home of Kappa chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta is Lawrence, Kansas, where the State University is located. No college or university in this country, with one exception as far as the writer knows, has a campus commanding so fine a view as does the University of Kansas. That exception is Iota's home, Cornell University. Let no one think that eastern Kansas is without trees and hills.

On a high bluff between two river valleys was located the University of Kansas, opened in 1866. To the south is the valley of the Wakarusa river with hills beyond, one with coloring so blue it is known as Blue Mound. To the north lies the valley of the Kansas river, stretching far away to the west and north and east. Below the University, at the foot of what is now called Mount Oread, is the city of Lawrence, known rightly or wrongly as the Athens of Kansas and almost hidden to view from above in summer time by the trees that line its streets.

Like many another institution of contemporary age this University had humble beginnings—one building, a faculty of three and a student body of fifty-five—and like many other state institutions its growth has been marked by biennial legislative struggles. It has been the recipient of a few private bequests. We can boast of no far reaching plan from the beginning. No vision in the past has given us in the present a campus well planned from the first, with uniform architecture. If variety be the spice of life, our buildings in design and material may be said to be very spicy. There are several of native limestone perhaps as effective as any on the campus, the oldest being Fraser Hall erected in 1872, a dignified structure that compares favorably with buildings of later date. Today some twenty-five major buildings extend for more than half a mile across Mount Oread, the product of the genius of successive State Architects. The Medical School of the University is located at Rosedale, Kansas, where is carried the work of the junior and senior years for medical students. Only one dormitory has been erected by the State at this institution and that for young women on the site of the first building that housed the University, North College, some distance from the present campus. Private generosity has provided a Hall for a limited number of self supporting girls.

To this environment come now over five thousand students in winter and summer sessions to be taught by a faculty of two hundred and fifty. Many of the students live in fraternity houses built and owned by the organizations, both social and honorary fraternities. And these fraternity organizations contribute no small part to the University life. It is to them that appeal is always made to house University guests, graduates and undergraduates and prospective students, when they come in large numbers for special occasions. To a marked degree one seldom hears the word co-ed used here. Coeducation is so much a part of the educational life of the midwest that both men and women students seem to be regarded as co-eds, as indeed they are. On a recent visit here an army officer in close touch with the CCC camps of this mid-western area characterized the young men in these camps as wholesome. That adjective characterizes the social life of this university.

Kappa Alpha Theta came into the picture at the University of Kansas in 1881. Kappa chapter has lived in its own home since 1912. Additions and improvements have been made in the chapter house to accommodate thirty of the present chapter of fifty, which views with no alarm its property's having been placed this past year upon the tax rolls. Three years ago Kappa celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its establishment here. Many Thetas of other years returned to renew friendships, to talk and take counsel together, finally, of course, to eat together for all weighty deliberations always close with a banquet. At a Founders'-day meeting on the twenty-seventh of last January a charter member of Kappa chapter and the first editor of the Theta Journal were honor guests.

As with the State, so with its University and with Kappa chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta in this University there is a heritage from the past to live up to in the present and to inspire for the future. As one of the present-day historians has written, Kansas is a spirit, it is a state of mind. And nowhere does one meet the glorification of the very soil that one does in Kansas.

Founders'-day Honolulu

IN a truly Hawaiian garden setting with a view through coconut trunks of the open ocean, of passing sun-tanned bathers and an occasional sail boat or steamer, we celebrated Founders'-day in Honolulu as the Theta Alumnae club of Hawaii.

On the open lanai of the House-without-a-key, the table was set for 21 Thetas from 17 different chapters. We were happy to be together with a common interest in this far away beauty spot of the Pacific. The center piece was cup of gold and ti blossoms, with a golden hibiscus tied with ti leaves enameled black, like a patent leather ribbon, at each end of the long table. The four black candles in brass candle sticks were joined by a gracefully entwined lei of the royal yellow ilima, so carefully provided by Charlotte Hall, who keeps us united in Theta interest.

Peg Stewart, as chairman, led the ceremony and lighted the candles for our Founders. Mrs Banta's greeting for Founders'-day was read by Margaret Turner, Upsilon, and a brief résumé of the Scholarship and fellowship fund, which had come in a skilfully worded cablegram from Grace Lavayea. Following the chain song, with violin and piano accompaniment provided by Margaret Hadley and Irene Kulzer, we were entertained with a clever musical skit, Dinah and her Villikins, in costume. This was directed by Phyllis Logan Smoot who took the part of the father in the play. Grace Turner was the gentle daughter Dinah, and Betty Carter her beloved Villikins, in the much enjoyed melodrama.

Our fellowship was delightful and the pleasure of the day will linger long in the memory of each of us fortunate enough to be in Honolulu.

Thetas of the Press

The KAPPA ALPHA THETA is pleased and proud to publish these articles, written for it by two famous Theta Newspaperwomen, Genevieve Forbes Herrick (Mrs John), Tau, and Corinne Reid Frazier, Alpha Eta, both of Washington, D.C.

Corinne Reid Frazier

"She Went to Church and Got a Scoop."

By GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK

THE other night I was walking down Pennsylvania avenue when one of the White House ushers came through the gates from the Executive Mansion. I spoke to him.

He tipped his hat; smiled, and said:

"Good Evening, Miss Frazier."

"I'm not Miss Frazier," I called out. The arc-light shone down on both of us. He recognized me, and fumbled out a: "Beg your pardon, Mrs Herrick."

Which led me to remark, "Don't beg my pardon. I am delighted to be taken for Miss Frazier."

That wasn't mere rhetoric, there was realism in my remark. For we are both Thetas; we are both newspaperwomen; we are good friends, and we are both tall.

And Corinne Reid Frazier is one of the most competent, and best liked newspaperwomen in Washington, a town of writing women. When she isn't banging a typewriter (frequently for the Philadelphia Public Ledger, but often, too, for magazines), she is twirling a tennis racket with the same deftness that she puts into a caligraph.

She scoops'm in the courts; and she scoops'm on the courts. An ambidextrous lady.

She was born in Washington. And that's pretty unusual; for nearly everybody here has come from someplace else. Her mother, a sweet, gentle, gentlewoman from the south; her father, proud wearer, with distinction, of the blue of Annapolis. Her early schooling down in Nashville. Then a year at Vanderbilt, and the black and gold kite of Kappa Alpha Theta. Her Theta loyalty, however, is not measured in statistics; she gives more to Theta than many a girl who was in an undergraduate chapter four full years.

Back in Washington she went to the school of journalism at George Washington University. One fine day she went to church; heard the minister pray for a sick girl. Enthusiastic over news, she tarried when the sermon was done; talked with the rector; found out the story—a story of a widely known Washington girl who had been seriously (and finally fatally) injured in a queer motor accident. She took the story to a local paper; made page one, and a reputation.

Lithe and limber, she played a sporting game of tennis. So when the Evening Star sought to break a precedent and have a woman writing women's sports, it put Corinne Frazier on its staff. She handled a typewriter as well as a tennis racket; achieved a reputation in both fields. She's won more singles tennis championships than I've space to record; she's played her way to success in doubles.

Every newspaperwoman yearns to turn real author. She turned the yearning into reality when she collaborated with Mrs Charlotte Prentiss Browning (mother of Frank Loesch, famed Chicago lawyer) and wrote Full Harvest.

One more thing: Corinne is an actress. Recently the Women's National Press club of Washington gave its annual dinner and stunt party in honor of Mrs Roosevelt. Corinne was cast for a modern Salome who put on a dance of seven veils in a skit termed Devaluation of the Dollar. When Corinne had devaluated she not only brought the gold standard down, but she brought down the house. Mrs Roosevelt thought it one of the cleverest things she had ever seen.

The First Lady's Press Conference

By CORINNE REID FRAZIER

MRS ROOSEVELT's conferences with the press are a liberal education.

They mean this and much more to the thirty-odd scribes who gather each Monday morning in her sun-lit sitting room on the second floor of the White House, for the unprecedented hour of intimate discussion with the First Lady, out of which come official statements directly quoted—and never before issued by a President's wife: out of which also comes the most accurate social and family news yet made available to the press whose business it is to reflect for the nation, the personalities and activities of the Presidential family.

Words are wholly inadequate to describe the relationship existing between Eleanor Roosevelt and "her press." Her simple naturalness, genuine affection for people, and extraordinary depth of understanding precluded from the outset, any stiff formality or spirit of caution in her reception of the newspaper representatives. The completely naïve confidence she placed at once in the women interviewing her, won them one and all from the start, inspiring a loyalty which in itself is a safeguard against the "awful consequences" of talking frankly in the presence of reporters, of which she was warned repeatedly when she first announced her intention of holding press conferences.

Mrs Roosevelt announced at the first conference held in her suite at the Mayflower Hotel last March—on the eve of her husband's inaugural, that she would answer no questions about the President—and none for him. Questions of his policies, or of debatable political issues are taboo, she informed her questioners then. And these rules have been strictly adhered to.

Aside from that, every subject under the sun is discussed, either on or off the record—and therein lies the liberal education. Mrs Roosevelt has an amazing fund of knowledge on all subjects of current interest. And she has that greater thing—a comprehensive source-of-information system, the equal of which I, for one, have never encountered. If she lacks information on any subject she postpones a discussion of it until she can reach out to pull one of the countless strings at her finger tips which seem to span the entire nation in a network of unfailing sources. Invariably, she comes through with an intelligent, well digested summary of the question or problem involved, within an incredibly short time. Her knowledge and understanding of economic and social questions is a continual source of wonderment and admiration to those who know the details of her busy life.

To get back to her conferences, Mrs Roosevelt speaks with utter frankness at all times. Often she speaks off the record to give us the proper background for a statement she is about to make, or to explain the reason for not making any statement, perhaps, in response to some query. Her off-the-record comments are observed faithfully by her hearers.

There is no formality whatever in the manner of putting the queries to her. In fact, from the moment the Chief Usher escorts us up the wide marble stairway from the green parlor, where we customarily gather, to the moment when Mrs Roosevelt rises, indicating that the interview is over, an atmosphere of delightfully cordial informality pervades the conferences.

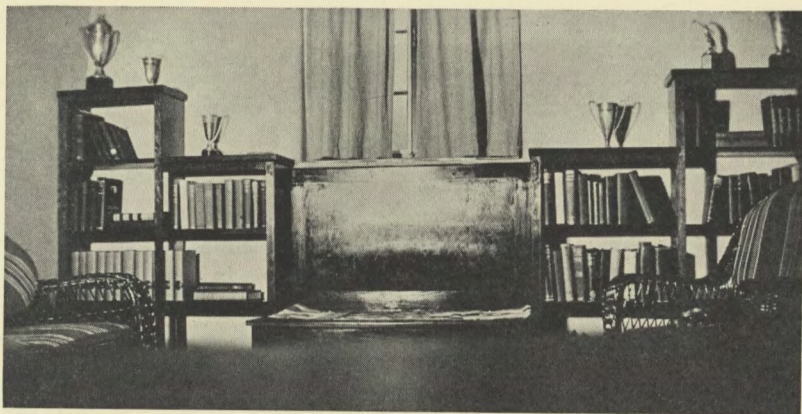

The women gather about her, some of them sitting on the floor at her feet, others in chairs or on the comfortable divans, one of which is occupied always by the First Lady and her Secretary, Malvina Thompson Scheider. Some, even, are perched on the arms of chairs.

But, withal, there is at no time a lack of dignity. There could be no lack of dignity where Mrs Roosevelt presides, for her dignity is as much a part of her as are the long expressive hands, or the smile which is her rarest charm.

Library Progress

At Oklahoma State

BETA ZETA'S library has progressed. A room was redecorated in the basement, and bookshelves and a window seat built. The room has black wicker furniture with bright cretonne covers, and a white bear skin rug donated by Martha Jane Dawson. It makes a nice study room as well as reading room.

On top of the bookshelves are chapter trophies, and on one wall our honor plaque.

Interest has been stimulated by many gifts. Tulsa alumnae chapter gave us War and peace by Tolstoy. Oklahoma City alumnae gave us a standard dictionary. Mrs J. W. Rogers of Tulsa gave us Anthology of American verse, and Mrs J. E. Berry, president of the Stillwater club gave us a year's subscription to Literary digest. Another book of interest added is Miss Bishop by Bess Streeter Aldrich in which Theta is mentioned several times. Many reference books have been loaned or given by actives or alumnae.

After spring vacation we hope to have our shelves filled, as each member and pledge plans to give one or more books.

At Purdue

Alpha Chi's library, the dream and ambition of Bird Goslee Crockett, is now a reality. With a nucleus of sixty-five books, and a sum of money donated by loyal Alpha Chi alumnae to be expended for additional ones, we have laid the foundation for our chapter library in memory of her who inspired its beginning. The Lafayette alumnae chapter has had installed two five-foot book shelves in the sun room of the chapter house.

To keep our books from wandering, we have devised a card index system for their circulation. Each book when taken out will have its card marked with name of reader and date, and the card filed under author's name; on returning the date is marked and card placed in the book.

Ruth Bahls, our talented alumnae artist, has designed a bookplate distinctly Theta in character, with the words "Bird Goslee Crockett memorial library."

Lafayette alumnae chapter is planning a book shower, in conjunction with the Theta Mothers' club.

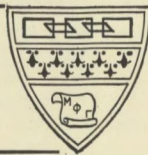

With our nest-egg, magazines and Book-of-the-month subscriptions, we hope to build a chapter library of quality and balance.

NELLE RYAN YOUNG (Mrs B. C.)

THETAS IN THE PRESS

Gertrude Gilbert Drury, Lambda, compiled for the Wilson Company, The library and its home; reprints of articles and addresses.

Marjorie Gillam, Beta Kappa, who has been in the cast of Topsy and Eva, playing in Chicago, has been advanced to the prima donna rôle. She also sings at the College inn.

Isadore Mudge, Iota, has published a third supplement to her reference book guide, called Reference books of 1931-33. Miss Mudge is reference librarian of Columbia university, New York city. She is a frequent contributor to the library magazines.

Helen Jacobs in February played tennis in Jamaica, in the Jamaica International tournament, where with her American doubles partner, George Lott, she won many sets from the Canadian and English contestants.

Madelyn E. Ralph, Chi, known on the campus as "Peg Mahony" has a story in the March issue of Home, and will appear within the next few months in the Sunday supplement of the Philadelphia public ledger, and several Canadian magazines, including the National home monthly, and Chaterlaine.

Doris Agler, Alpha Gamma, is a regular reporter on the Columbus (Ohio) dispatch, where she went to work, after graduating at Ohio State university in June 1930, on the lowest rung of the newspaper staff, compiling obituaries.

Elva L. Basom, Mu, member of Theta's Library project committee, is the author of a recent article, Selecting books with tears in the Michigan Library bulletin, and co-author, with Mrs E. K. Botset, of Books of the last two years suitable for high schools, appearing in Pennsylvania library notes.

Charlotte Stone Walker (Mrs Willard J.), Eta, former editor of KAPPA ALPHA THETA, has been declared one of the leading citizens of Pasadena, California. Of her recent honors we quote from a Pasadena newspaper—

Mrs. Willard J. Stone is to receive the Arthur Noble award for the year in recognition of her notable services and helpfulness in connection with the program of unemployment relief for women in Pasadena during the year, as well as for her outstanding services to various civic causes during the past several years.

Announcement of the award committee of which Dr. William B. Munro is chairman, was made to the Board of City Directors today. The committee was unanimous in selecting Mrs. Stone to receive the gold medal which Mr. Noble gives each year for notable service to the city.

In conveying the recommendations of the committee to the Board of City Directors, Dr. Munro stated that the recommendation was unanimous. He said that twenty-two names of prominent Pasadenans had been suggested to the committee, and that all the names had been given careful consideration. In the judgment of the committee there are several citizens who worthily might be awarded the medal this year, but it seemed to the committee that Mrs. Stone's services had been of a particularly devoted sort at a time when voluntary work for the relief of unemployment among women has been sorely needed. During the past two years Mrs. Stone has devoted practically all of her time, without a single dollar of remuneration, to the task of trying to find jobs for unemployed women in Pasadena, and has succeeded in literally hundreds of cases. It was the committee's belief that, without disparagement to the others whose names were carefully considered Mrs. Stone's contribution seemed to be the most deserving of public recognition at present.

* * *

In 1923 Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Carl C. Thomas* and other prominent women of Pasadena founded the Convalescent Aid Society and established the Thrift Shop as a means of helping to support it.

* Mrs Thomas is also a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, Katherine Nash, Phi.

Mrs. Stone has been director of the Thrift Shop during the past ten years and it has proved a highly successful establishment, both financially and as an institution of social service. In 1931 City Manager J. W. Charleville appointed Mrs. Stone to the chairmanship of the emergency employment program for women in Pasadena, and subsequently she became chairman of the City's advisory employment board. In both capacities she has given unstintingly of her time and energy to the work of helping unemployed women.

HELPED BLOCK-AID

She was also helpful to Mrs. Myron Hunt in the Block-Aid relief movement of a year ago. For this and other services, Mrs. Hunt was awarded the Arthur Noble Medal for 1932. More than a year ago Mrs. Stone was appointed to the County Board of Supervisors to membership on the Los Angeles County Emergency Relief Committee.

Mrs. Stone served for two years, 1930-1932, as president of the Women's Civic League. She is a member of the executive board of the Council of Social Agencies and has been a director of the Pasadena Association ever since it was organized. In 1932 she also served as a member of a committee which recodified the city charter.

The New York Herald-Tribune of February 25, had an interesting article headed "Members of women's fraternities have achieved varied distinction." The author is Helen Waldo, Alpha Psi and New York alumnae, known and loved by many Thetas. The Thetas named in the article are: Dr Iva Peters, Chi; Cornelia Stratton Parker, Omega; Mary Ritter Beard, Alpha; Genevieve Forbes Herrick, Tau; Mary Margaret McBride, Alpha Mu; Helen Jacobs, Omega; Jane Fauntz, Delta; Margaret Sawyer, Delta; Vera Kelsey, Alpha Pi. The article follows—

Representatives of twenty-one national college sororities, or women's fraternities, will assemble at the Hotel Plaza on March 2 for the ninth annual ball of the New York City Panhellenic.

There are days in which one is not permitted to lean upon traditions. Every institution, no matter how time-honored or how bolstered by sentiment, has had to come under the unsympathetic spotlight of investigation, and has been forced to prove its right to continuation. College fraternities have not escaped this searching, but they have come through the testing remarkably well. This focusing of attention on something whose worth has been taken for granted has had only wholesome reactions. An organization required to produce the reason for its being, restates its ideals and purposes with renewed energy and supports them with a sincerity born of awakened responsibility.

As a Western college president recently said: "The need for fraternities is as great today as it ever was. If fraternities, like athletics, had not grown up, we should have had to invent them. But they must fulfill different needs and must change their objectives with new times and fresh circumstances."

STRONGHOLD IS IN WEST

Women's fraternities are found largely in educational schools, which type of institution finds its stronghold in the West and Middle West. Hence the fact that the women's Greek letter badges are not so well known in the East as are the emblems of men's nationals. But a listing of a few of the many fraternity women who have won distinction will show how deeply these organizations have penetrated into college life, and how important is their contribution to national life, if one may judge by the type of woman they have helped to produce.

In the field of education a few names that come to mind are Jessica Finch Cosgrove, Sare Sturdevant, Leta Hollingsworth, Mary DeGarmo Bryan, Virginia Gildersleeve, Ada L. Comstock, Louise Pound, Iva Peters, Louise Fitch, Anna Meany and Mary L. Keller.

Names to conjure with in the literary world are Dorothy Canfield Fisher, Alice Duer Miller, Pearl Buck and Dorothy Thompson. Genevieve Taggart, poet; Irita Van Doren, editor of the New York Herald Tribune "Books"; Mabel P. Daggett, Mary Ellen Chase, Nora Waln, Grace S. Richmond, Elizabeth Corbett, Cornelia Stratton Parker, Mrs. Charles A. Beard and Virginia Frazier Boyle, "Poet Laureate of the South," by no means complete the list.

In the theater a variety of phases are represented by Helen Arthur, producer; Agnes DeMille, dancer; Halle Stiles, soprano of the Chicago Opera, and Sue Hastings in the marionette field.

IN THE REALM OF LAW

Greek letter women who have achieved notable law careers are Mable Walker Willebrandt, Lena Madesin Phillips, Mary Powle, Annette Abbott Adams, Helen McCormick and Pinckney Estes Glantzberg. Among lecturers and authorities on public affairs there are Ida Wright Bowman and Jessico Wallace Hagan.

In the field of social and welfare work one finds Joanne Colcord, Josephine Schain, Mary L. Simkhovitch and Grace Abbott, of the United States Children's Bureau.

In journalism three leading women come to mind: Genevieve Forbes Herrick, heard weekly on the radio; Mary Margaret McBride, author and newspaper woman, and Sara Haardt Mencken, an able journalist on her own account and not out-

One of the world's foremost women in athletics, Helen Wills Moody, wears a Greek emblem, as do her tennis colleagues, Helen Jacobs and Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman. Jane Fauntz, the young Olympic diver, carries her fraternity loyalty as far into the water as the aviators, Louise Van Thaden and Betty Huyler Gillies mount with theirs into the air.

Followers of Clara, Lou an' Em on the radio will wonder that college fraternity women can master the vernacular and the colloquial so well.

Other unusual vocations pursued by Greek letter wearers are the mastery of heraldry, the career of Emily Butterfield, and the photographing of mechanical devices by Margaret Bourke-White.

Southern hospitality awaits Thetas at convention

Abusing the Greek Alphabet

By JAMES STINCHCOMB, Assistant Professor of Latin, University of Pittsburgh

Some laughable stories have been told of the appropriation of Greek-letter names by organizations as remote from their campus possessors as a laundry-men's union, a chiropractic clinic, and a singing society of colored girls. Not all these stories have been merely laughable; some have bordered on pathos. The fraternity members' amused smile at this unflattering kind of imitation contains a degree of that charitable habit of American youth of seeking the humorous angle of a circumstance otherwise intolerable.

Unless checked by good taste or recognized convention, this imitative naming will work a definite harm to the social fraternities. One excellent old local fraternity has refused national affiliation merely because as a local it may retain its distinctive non-Greek name. Graduates of non-fraternity institutions assume a false superiority on the illogical grounds that their clubs, sodalities, and halls do not share their names with Sunday school classes and dance clubs. An occasional freshman denies himself the benefits of a college fraternity because he is appraising fraternities by the mawkish imitations found in his home community. Luckily, many of the bodies which take Greek names are short-lived and inconspicuous. But everyone has had a chance to observe that the failure of one ephemeral clique of this sort gives rise to three or four new cliques, all as likely as not to be graced with Greek-letter names. Sometimes the names are not correctly spelled and often they are mispronounced, but all of them do their bit toward undermining the dignity of the campus societies which were founded by Americans who knew the Greek tradition and intelligently connected their own organizations with its ideals.

The good-natured liberality of college fraternity members will some day reach its limit and an

IN BUSINESS WORLD

Among women in banks and advertising agencies and as executives in the business world are Helen Knox, of the Chase National Bank; Margaret Sawyer and Marie Sellers, of General Foods; Mary Louise Alexander, of Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborne; Vera Kelsey, publicity director of the American Woman's Association, and Mrs. E. J. Durand, manager of the Panhellenic House at 3 Mitchell Place, New York, a hotel and clubhouse that was put up by local alumnae groups of national women's fraternities, and where they have their headquarters.

Then there are such national and international figures as Ruth Bryan Owen, Carrie Chapman Catt, Ella A. Boole and Mrs Charles Cary Rumsey.

organized foray will evict these multifarious invaders. Legal injunctions and social pressure will unite to protect the campus brotherhoods in their effort to keep an element of Greek culture in American higher education. The part which social pressure must play in this campaign will be legitimate and proper. The public will have an opportunity to recognize the peculiar merit of the college fraternity in our elaborated educational scheme. At least one superior newspaper already refuses to mention by a Greek name any organization except the genuine academic societies.

Surely no intelligent critic will uphold the view sometimes expressed by opponents of Greek names for the college groups. I have known two or three scholarly Americans who hold sincere objections to putting the Greek alphabet even to this use. Of course few who love and admire the language and literature of ancient Greece will fail to see that in adopting Greek names, with their euphonic and distinctive initials so ready for convenient popular tagging, our modern epheboi (and ephebai!) are paying tribute to the very qualities of Hellenic culture which we most admire. By probably no detail of modern life is our devotion to the intellectual standards of the old Greeks so frequently and fittingly recalled as by the Alphas, Betas, Gammas, Deltas, and Omegas of our fraternity names.

Part of the fault lies within our own ranks. If fraternity members would only insist when a new gymnastic team or a new sophomore girls' social service guild is being organized, that its name be no travesty on the fraternity system, we should have a better right to laugh out of court the Sigma Omicron Sigma honorary cattle-judging and hog-calling club.

Changing College Personnel at the University of Wisconsin

IN JUNE 1930, a committee of the Letters and science faculty, of which Carl Russell Fish was chairman, presented a report suggesting changes in the curriculum, the methods of instruction, and the requirements for degrees which seemed advisable in consideration of the needs of the student of today.

Of the recommended changes, the one which would most affect membership in fraternities is the one preventing students from continuing their college work if, at the end of their sophomore year, they have much less than a 1.3 average per credit (amounting to something more than a straight C average).

The conditions which led the committee to this conclusion are easily explained. The increase of attendance necessitated limiting the number of students. Raising the necessary average would naturally eliminate the student who, by the end of his sophomore year, had not given evidence of ability to profit by further academic work. The University of Wisconsin has a national reputation for the opportunities it affords for the social as well as the academic pursuits. So it is natural to find students here, as elsewhere, who consider the social rather than the academic when they enroll. These students handicap the progress of the more scholarly students, and lower the university achievement.

However, the plan has not yet been put into effect. The decrease in the university enrollment during the last three years has made it inadvisable from a practical standpoint. When times become normal again more will probably be heard of this feature of the so-called Fish report. If it is carried out I think it will undoubtedly affect membership in fraternities.

Appreciation & Explanation

THE magazine has been overwhelmed by a wealth of fine copy submitted this spring, most of which it was impossible to find room for in this issue, since convention had the right of way, and next came Alumnæ chapter news and the usual College chapter news sections, both of which were cut to mere catalogue of facts in order to save space.

However, we assure our contributors that their efforts have not been in vain. All the stories and pictures are on file, and ready for use next fall, when the copy will be just as timely as it would be now. In fact, today from this accumulated material, there could be sent to the printer this week, another full issue, if a fifth issue per year were practicable.

The staff admits it is mighty glad not to edit another issue now when convention details are crowding for attention, in addition to all the usual routine and special tasks connected with closing up the chapter year in both college and alumnæ organizations.

The long over hours consumed in getting the May issue ready for the printer, would have been intolerable but for the confident cheer of knowing next fall's issue won't have to start from nothing and pile up its own copy. Thanks to all who have helped in this fine way.

Magazines

ALL Thetas subscribe for some magazines. Until two years ago, when under the leadership of Cleveland alumnae, the Theta magazine agency was inaugurated, few, if any of us, realized what a profitable venture such an agency could be.

One pays exactly the same subscription price for a magazine ordered through the agency, as one does for one ordered direct from the publisher, but there is a profit on the agency transaction which goes to increase the fraternity's Loan and fellowship fund. It isn't much labor for one to send one's orders to the agency, but the fine Theta who handles the agency business does much work for Theta. Appreciation of the services of Eleanor Taylor, Mu, manager of the agency, can not be too generous. She has made possible the success of this project.

Success, did you say? Rather, for from October 1, 1932, to January 29, 1934, the agency earned for the Loan and fellowship fund exactly $651.14 net. And it handled only 904 subscriptions, that is less than 9 subscriptions per chapter. If all of us sent our subscriptions to Miss Taylor, what would the profits mean to the loan fund?

When the Slip Gets By

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly,
 You can hunt till you are dizzy, but it somehow will get by.
 Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps;
 It shrinks down into a corner and it never stirs or peeps,
 The typographical error, too small for human eyes,
 Till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size.
 The boss he stares with horror, then he grabs his hair and groans;
 The copy reader drops his head upon his hands and moans—
 The remainder of the issue may be clean as clean can be,
 But that typographical error is the only thing you see.

Century of Progress Visitors

Since this coming summer the Century of progress promises to be larger and better than last year, and a marvelous new loan art collection is being gathered in Europe to supplement the one last year at the Art museum, no doubt many Thetas will be stopping over in Chicago to visit these attractions. To them comes this message: Chicago South side alumnae chapter wishes to cooperate with all Chicago in assisting visitors to the fair. Visiting Thetas may obtain information by calling one of the following: Mrs Ralph M. Parks, Midway 0222; Mrs R. Alfred Wilcox, Regent 0830; or Mrs George E. Woodfield, 4482.

ALUMNAE CHAPTER YEAR

In theory the May issue of KAPPA ALPHA THETA gives most of its space to a review of the year in the alumnae chapters. To make this feature a success, each alumnae chapter is invited to send a full report of the chapter's year of activities and interests.

In practice, space for such a review seems impossible to secure, especially in convention year when another imperative feature is pictures of convention personnel, and full details for getting to convention, etc. This year added difficulties have arisen, because various codes have increased the cost of various items involved in getting out a magazine. And so, it is with much embarrassment and regret that the editor asks the alumnae chapter editors to forgive the condensation of their copy into the news notes that follow.

Appleton: A successful year, mainly because "we all have such good times together that no one wants to miss a meeting." Good food contributed by hostesses, and lowered dues have helped too. A benefit bridge netted a goodly sum for the treasury.

Having the college chapter, Alpha Psi, as a neighbor, this alumnae chapter plays big sister in many ways. A rushing tea in the fall, a Christmas party for Alpha Psi and its pledges were features of the year. The two chapters joined also in celebrating Founders'-day with a luncheon, where Mrs Banta was the speaker. Fees for one pledge, unable otherwise to be initiated, were paid by the alumnae chapter.

Boston: Meetings are informal and friendly, bringing together Thetas from all over the country, so are much enjoyed. The Founders'-day luncheon had Theta bookplates as place cards; the entertainment included dances by Betty MacIntosh of Alpha Lambda, and music by Mrs Plowman, Upsilon, and Gladys Gleason, Rho. A white elephant sale netted ten dollars for the treasury. April will see the Loan and fellowship fund benefiting by a special party with drama by talented members.

Buffalo: Was glad to welcome new members, several fresh from college chapter life. Among the 25 members, 15 college chapters are represented.

A new budget plan has worked out well: beside national dues, each active member was required to pay $3, which took care of entertaining, scholarship and friendship fund gifts, flowers for the sick, and all other incidentals; the only extra for the year was the Founders'-day banquet. Three members entertain at the monthly supper meeting, with costs limited to $6, from the chapter treasury; any non-active Theta is welcomed at the supper, paying simply for the meal. They expect to have a surplus for the Loan and fellowship fund when the year ends.

Programs included a musicale, making of scrap books for the Children's hospital Christmas, current events, book reviews.

Chicago South Side: Has enjoyed its meetings more than ever before, because they have been so friendly and jolly and yet serious and purposeful. Hardships of depression have shown and strength of the Theta tie. Membership has kept up and there have been many visiting Thetas, though a few old members are missed, who have moved away from Chicago.

An attractive program booklet was published through the courtesy of Mr John P. Paulson, Theta husband, which gives a list of officers, monthly meeting programs with names of hostesses, and a directory of Chicago Thetas.

Programs included a talk on Russian experiences by Mrs Fox, who spent some years in Russia with her engineering husband, and in sharp contrast the experience of Mrs Gilfillan, who had made the In-tourist trip through Russia; a meeting for husbands and friends, when Mr Fox showed 25000 feet of movie films he had taken in Russia. A Christmas party with games, grab bags, candy, and a delicious supper; a unique review of Sixty years in Kappa Alpha Theta; and an informal talk by the Grand alumnae secretary, Mrs Kircher. The chapter joined with other nearby Theta groups in celebrating Founders'-day as reported in the March issue.

Cleveland: Meeting programs included: A supper meeting welcoming new members, reporting district convention, and meeting plans for the year; a benefit bridge and style show, with the raffle of a string of amber beads, to help along the treasury; supper at the cafeteria of the Ohio Bell telephone company, with husbands included, followed by an inspection tour of the building; a talk on spring gardens, with zero temperature outside; reading of poems by Mrs Ben Blair; a bridge tournament luncheon; Founders'-day luncheon with a radio skit entitled March of KAT as chief feature.

The chapter's Social service work this year has been for the girls of Schauffler school, the president of which is Dr Raymond Clapp, husband of Janet Harris of Chi. After supper the girls of this school were guests and presented a program. Then in January the girls entertained the Thetas for tea at the school.

A rush tea was given in the fall for girls going to Ohio colleges. There have been bridge groups, each of which gathered in its own section of the city once a month to play for twenty-five cents a guest, which added much to the chapter treasury. The treasury was also helped by a committee which sold various products on commission.

Columbus: Monthly dinner meetings were held with such programs as these: exchange of summer vacation stories; review of the theater season in New York; the pin service tea, when the honorary badges are awarded to outstanding members of Alpha Gamma; a talk on travels through the South seas, illustrated with pictures, native art work, and other trip souvenirs; celebration of Alpha Gamma's birthday; celebration of Founders'-day in a joint banquet with Gamma deuterion and Alpha Gamma.

Beside regular meetings, informal groups for bridge, book reviews, and sewing met regularly to raise money for the Loan and fellowship fund.

Dallas alumnae: The year's activities opened with a tea, honoring Helen Vreeland Hammerstein, Theta president of the City Panhellenic, with guests from other fraternities. Twelve new members, representing Alpha Theta, Tau, Alpha Omicron, and the new alumnae of Beta Sigma, joined the chapter. Two meetings were devoted to the Social service project, sewing for the charity organization.

The chapter has started this year the custom of giving a jeweled Theta badge to the pledge of Beta Sigma that makes the highest average.

The year will end with a barbecue to which husbands and sweethearts will be invited.

Des Moines: Regular meetings are luncheons at a down town tea room, with bridge for those who can remain for the afternoon. The chapter was hostess at a formal supper dance in April, honoring Beta Kappa and its pledges.

This chapter has established an emergency fund, into which goes money made from buffet Theta suppers, bridge parties, and pennies contributed at luncheon meetings.

Detroit: published a yearbook giving meeting programs, list of officers, committee chairmen, and list of all Detroit Thetas.

Regular business meetings have been enlivened by: a book review, travel talk, Michigan's taxation problem presented by Louise Dunkle Fuchs, readings from Jessie Allen Hancock's new children's book, and teas, picnics and holiday parties. At the usual Christmas children's party gifts brought were given to a settlement house. The usual Valentine party was given the girls in Williams house. Mr and Mrs Philip Worcester (Margaret Dill) were hosts to a chapter bridge party for Thetas, husbands and escorts. To raise money for the Loan and fellowship fund several group bridge parties have been most successful.

Through a membership drive we were able to increase our last year's number of active members, so we plan and hope to send two delegates to convention.

Evanston: Enthusiastic monthly luncheon meetings have an average attendance of 50 Thetas. Features of the year have been a program of songs, book reviews, a food shower for the Visiting nurses association, talks on art. A formal tea was given for Tau, its pledges and Mothers. Tau seniors will be guests at the June meeting. One luncheon meeting was at Tau's chapter house, as was the pre-Christmas benefit dance for the Loan and fellowship fund. A book shower for Tau's library increased the collection by 50 books, and added a cash gift for desired additions.

Gary: A small group, 22 active members, represents an unusually large number of college chapters: Alpha, Beta, Gamma, Tau, Rho, Psi, Alpha Rho, Alpha Chi, Beta Iota. We are close friends and have such good times at the monthly meetings. The chapter will in May entertain the Gary Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae club, carrying forward the custom of an annual get-together with the Kappas.

Houston: Monthly luncheon meetings have proved popular. At one the District president, Miss Marks was guest. During the Christmas season a tea was given for the college Thetas and pledges home for the holiday. Founders'-day was celebrated with a buffet supper, with out-of-town Thetas guests, and a model initiation ritual as entertainment.

Lafayette: This chapter's great interest is playing Big Sister to Alpha Chi chapter. On alternate months, the alumnae chapter dines at the chapter house, where each alumna is escorted to dinner by an active, and friendships developed.

An alumnae rush chairman assigns every member of the alumnae chapter to assist at one rushing event. Thus the college members are relieved of most of the burden of serving, etc., and can give undivided time to entertaining rushees.

The chapter's great undertaking is its famous fruit cake, prepared for Christmas trade. Three hundred pounds of fruit cake, at one dollar a pound, was this year's record. The profit goes to buy shares in Alpha Chi's chapter house, the alumnae chapter now owning 99 shares, bought in the past 12 years through fruit cake sales.

The alumnae chapter had book shelves built in Alpha Chi's house, to house the rapidly growing Bird Goslee Crockett memorial library, for which the alumnae are joining the Theta Mothers' club in a book shower.

Lincoln: Reports a successful year, which started off with a Registration and rushing luncheon at the University club, where each member received a program yearbook. Monthly social meetings followed, at one of which, Mrs Banta, Grand president, and ten members of Omaha alumnae were guests. In May the seniors of Rho will be the honor guests.

In December the traditional Christmas party for Theta children was well attended. This is an opportune time for high school daughters and sisters to observe the real Theta atmosphere and meet the college chapter.

The chapter has taken up singing, a few minutes at every meeting being spent in singing familiar Theta songs and learning new ones.

Los Angeles: Printed programs, with a schedule of meetings, and a list of officers, were distributed in the fall, which we find a successful method of notification of meetings.

Meetings have included dinners, teas, luncheons. Programs ranged from talks on travel, on the work of the Assistance league which is a local charity organization, a fashion co-ordinator's work; with bridge, an evening of drama, and a June picnic as recreation events. There was a tea for gentlemen guests at Beta Xi's chapter house; and a large benefit party at the Biltmore hotel, from the profits of which gifts were made to Beta Xi, Omicron, the Loan and fellowship fund, and the Florence Crittenden home.

Minneapolis: The first meeting was a dinner, with new members and incoming officers as guests; then a musical tea, with Upsilon pledges and their mothers, the Theta Mothers' club and the House association board as guests. A sale of jellies and jams at the November dinner netted $9, and entertainment was furnished by the Civic opera association, which presented Act 1 from Hansel and Gretel. The chapter joined Upsilon at a Christmas chapter house party, to which each brought a toy, for the gift bags later distributed to needy children. The lake, a play by two members, was read at a spring meeting.

Two bridge clubs have met monthly all winter, each group composed of six couples, with a fifty cents playing fee per couple. The chapter profits from the club will approximate $45.00 and the gatherings have given much pleasure to Theta's and their husbands.

Nashville: One night meeting, and one luncheon each month is the continued plan by which a successful year has progressed. Night meetings are for business, luncheons for social good times, both are at the Alpha Eta lodge, and a different group of alumnae serves as hostess for each luncheon. Programs are featured at night meetings, including recently a review of Oil for the lamps of China, a talk on home lighting.

In December a Christmas box was sent an alumna who has long been an invalid. Alpha Eta seniors will be honored with a dinner in May.

New Orleans: Interesting programs at recent monthly meetings have been; a talk on welfare work by Bertha Schuermann, who is head of the city's Welfare agency; history of Mardi Gras, by Eunice Bates, who designs many of its parades and balls; a recital by Attica Aitkens. Such talented Thetas within a chapter are prizes indeed.

Founders'-day celebration was postponed to be combined with a big celebration in May of the twentieth anniversary of the founding of Alpha Phi chapter.

Alpha Phi and its pledges were entertained at a movie party, movies of a Theta house party five years back, with lollipops for refreshments.

New York City alumnae: Celebrated Kappa Alpha Theta birthday, January 27 with a luncheon in the ballroom of the Panhellenic hotel.

It was indeed a privilege to unite with the two new clubs, Long Island and Westchester, in celebrating such a happy occasion. Lillian Wait, New York City chapter president, gave the toast to the Founders and cordially greeted those who once again met to renew friendships and pleasant associations.

Ninety alumnae were seated at small tables attractively appointed with black and gold candles and pansies. Following the luncheon Helen Waldo gave a résumé of the activities of Panhellenic hotel, especially of the new organization, the Beekman Hill Forum, which is achieving far reaching recognition as one of the city's leading educational centers.

Mrs Haggarty, president of the Long Island club enthusiastically spoke of the many enjoyable meetings that had been held this winter in the homes of its members. The club gave a bridge January 2 for the benefit of Alpha Kappa.

Helen McKeon and Isabelle Beniart, Alpha Kappa, gave a clever and appropriate skit on Founders'-day for the pleasure of the alumnae.

Omaha: Modern paved highways, high-powered automobiles, have furthered a growing friendliness and interest between this chapter and Lincoln alumnae, so they are frequently exchanging visits.

Lincoln alumnae, to the number of 20, and Rho active members came to Omaha for a joint Founders'-day celebration. Omaha alumnæ went to Lincoln to greet the Grand president, Mrs Banta, at a tea Lincoln alumnae gave for her. The chapter again journeyed to Lincoln to participate in Rho's initiation and the reunion banquet that followed it.

To replenish its treasury the chapter had an evening bridge party, with husbands and beaux as guests.

The chapter reports eleven Thetas newly moved to Omaha, including Martha Cline Huffman, former Grand council member and present Convention manager.

Pasadena: Began its ninth year with a garden supper, where business was followed by an inspiring book review. Since then afternoon and supper meetings have alternated, the latter proving more popular and having an average attendance of 50. Programs vary from book reviews, discussions of scientific subjects, and reports of current events.

At Christmas time dolls were dressed for children of 12 poor families, and a gift of money sent to each of the nearby college chapters, Beta Xi and Omicron. A benefit bridge is expected to yield the usual $100 gift to the Loan and fellowship fund.

Fourteen college chapters are represented in the paid membership of 32. A special effort has been made to interest the very new alumnae in the chapter, which brought us five '33 graduates as active members, who have contributed much to a happy, congenial, successful chapter year.

Oklahoma alumnae: A successful year! Each meeting anticipated, with zest, well attended, well worth while. Monthly luncheons are our plan, with the hostess assisted by a committee of six or eight other members.

Program of the year: Registration luncheon with a musical and dance program; Norman alumnae club as honor guests, with a book review program; annual dance for the benefit of the Loan and fellowship fund; a lecture on Christ in art, illustrated with copies of famous pictures; current fiction, a talk followed by much discussion; teaching the deaf, presented by Mrs Brooks, Theta who conducts a school for them, which the alumnæ chapter has decided to sponsor, a fall fashion show to be the benefit medium for raising funds; a discussion of fraternity history; a spring tea for Alpha Omicron seniors, and another one for Theta mothers.

In December, the afternoon following the luncheon meeting was spent sewing for the Red cross, on garments for children.

Pittsburgh: All are excited over the newest undertaking of alumnae and Alpha Omega. A chapter house has been bought! The dream of Alpha Omega alumnae has come true. The house was put on the market to settle an estate, and through the prompt efforts of House commission and Executive board of Alpha Omega corporation, was bought at an attractive price. Cecille Boyd Keeney, one of the heirs, lived in the home while she was a member of the college chapter, so the house has had Theta associations for a long time, especially for those of the original chapter. It is only a few blocks from the university, is admirably suited for the purposes of the chapter, and is in excellent condition. We were able to buy much of the furniture through the generosity of Mrs Keeney. Too much cannot be said in appreciation of advice and service of friends of Thetas: especially to Mr Sion Smith, Theta husband and advisory attorney of Phi Kappa Psi, who was untiring in his efforts to get the property under favorable terms.

A new feature of the year was an art exhibit, where talented members displayed their work to Thetas and their friends. Exhibits were hung by Virginia Cuthbert, Zella Chambers, Olive Koenig, Esther Williams, Mrs Brink and others. Bertha Skinner Earle's puppets were an attractive addition to the exhibit.

Another innovation was a gathering of Thetas and their friends for a tour of the Sloane company's House of today, which netted a neat sum for the new house too.

During the year Alpha Omega was guest at an exciting party, there was a charming holiday fireside supper, and the annual rummage sale was a financial success. A tea, a luncheon where Miss Bascom presented the new books, a musicale by three talented Thetas, and the year will close with a luncheon at the Edgewood club.

Neighborhood bridges continue popular. The city and its environs are divided into 15 groups, each with a leader. Each group meets as its members decide, either with or without the men folks. A little tax is building up our gift to the Loan and fellowship fund. Far more valuable is the enthusiasm expressed in the getting together of the neighbor Thetas.

Portland: Besides being a pleasant and entertaining year, it has proved worthwhile in accomplishment.

Foremost, was the final payment on our gift of $500 which maintains and supports a bed in the Doernbecker children's hospital. Another important event was Theta banquet at the University club. The topic Theta In Review brought forth enlightening as well as amusing phases of Theta college life "in days gone by." An added feature, that almost disrupted the banquet, was a style show that dated from 1870 to the present time.

At Christmas time we had our usual Christmas party with food and clothing donations for the poor. Meetings of outstanding interest included current book reviews by Richard Montgomery, and chapter libraries and committee work by Miss Anne Mulheron. The year will end with a picnic for Alpha Xi and Beta Epsilon.

Providence: With a membership of 27, average attendance has been 17. Theta guests have been present at all but one gathering. There have been three eight o'clock evening meetings, one afternoon meeting, one all-day meeting at Taftville, Connecticut, one luncheon with an out-of-door business meeting at West Barrington, and the traditional Founders'-day supper.

The programs have consisted for the most part in the reading and discussion of material from national headquarters—Spring and Fall Bimonthlies, proposed changes in fraternity Bylaws, new Parliamentary procedure, and convention. Following Founders'-day supper, Saida Hallett, told of her year in the British Isles and of her visit there with Clara Whitehead and her daughter.

Reno: A most successful year with fifty cent monthly dinner meetings! Each dinner is sponsored by three members, who entertain the chapter according to a pre-arranged schedule. Alpha Beta, Iota, Omega, Phi, and Beta Iota, have been represented at our meetings, and also, we have had a fine attendance from Thetas living in Carson City, Fallon, and Dayton. They have added, not only to our pleasure, but have given us by their viewpoints a broadened outlook. The alumnae chapter has cooperated with Beta Mu in a presentation tea, a Christmas party and Founders'-day banquet, and helped compile rushing material.

February 27-28, we were honored by a visit from Mrs Wright, Grand vice-president, and Mrs Athearn, District president. In May the graduating seniors of Beta Mu will be welcomed into the alumnae chapter.

In March, we sent our donation to the Loan and fellowship fund and wished it could have been larger.

San Diego: Monthly meetings, alternate luncheons and dinners. Fifty Thetas from 30 college chapters were at the Founders'-day banquet. A one night bridge tournament raised money for the Friendship and the Loan and fellowship funds, and also for our local charity, the Boys and girls aid. More money was raised by selling Sunshine granulated soap. New books were purchased for the library we established five years ago at the Boys and girls aid. Each well attended monthly meeting has welcomed new members, many girls fresh from college experiences.

Kansas city: Two business meetings, with other meetings devoted to programs and getting better acquainted has proved a fine plan. In September a quarter bridge brought us together earlier than usual. In November we met at the Little gallery in the woods, home of Miss Effie Seachrest, art instructor, who talked on interesting features of the William Rockhill Nelson gallery of art and the Atkins museum, opened later that month.

The chapter joined with Kappa and Alpha Mu to give a rush tea during the holidays. Eighty-three Thetas, representing 16 chapters celebrated Thetas birthday at a banquet. Among meeting features were: a musicale, a talk on Oriental rugs, and moving pictures of Hamilton Island lodge in northern Minnesota.

Money raising projects have been: sale of Christmas cards and gift articles, magazine subscriptions, profits from monthly luncheons, a bridge tea. We have contributed to the Panhellenic scholarship fund, used to assist girls from Kansas city through colleges. Many recent graduates have joined the chapter, and added much to our enthusiasm.

Seattle: An interesting year! The October buffet supper was followed by a fashion show and travel talks by Betty Robb and Florence Fahey, Hazel Emery Skeel and her daughter Marguerite, both recently returned from Europe, where Marguerite had been studying art in Paris. November supper was at Alpha Lambda's chapter house, where its pledges gave a stunt, and Genevieve Chambers Case described religious festivals she attended in Italy.

Afternoon meetings in December, February, and May featured a handicraft display of articles made by Thetas, a music and marionette tea, talks on interior decorating and flower arrangement. Founders'-day banquet with Alpha Lambda took the place of a January meeting. An old fashioned box supper with a sleight-of-hand performer and Virginia Nachant's tumbling and dancing classes at the Helen Bush school were features in March. At the April supper Anna Noble reviewed Mrs Rawlings', Gal youngun. Tacoma alumnae will be our guests at a June bridge luncheon.

An innovation is the transaction of detailed business by the executive board before the chapter meeting. Minutes of their transactions are read to the meeting for approval, thus saving much time and doing away with long drawn out business meetings.

An interesting branch is the Theta garden club. These Thetas gather at least once a month to exchange notes on gardening. One of them, Harriet Parsons, has just had published her book The garden.

Bridge groups continue meeting twice a month, each player paying 25 cents into the alumnae chapter fund. Two rummage sales have been sources of revenue, too. From funds raised at a Benefit bridge luncheon, we gave two large families, who were on state relief, a real Christmas; clothing, Christmas dinner, gifts, and a trimmed tree, being delivered to each family's home on Christmas eve.

Spokane: A rushing tea opened the year. At another tea we had the pleasure of honoring our District president, Betty Robb.

Our money making project was a St. Patrick's day bridge tea, when the entertainment feature was a one act play, Sauce for the gosling, written by a talented Theta, Elaine Warren McGregor. One-hundred-thirty tables were sold and the guest list ran over 530. Prizes were donated by business firms. The clear profit was over $100.

Through a physician we helped a deserving high school girl. We also help Mary Stewart in her work at the Horace Mann school, giving jams, jellies, and fruits for the children's lunches, and at Christmas making red bags, and giving small gifts for their tree.

We are proud of our increase in membership, fifteen new members. Meetings, with splendid programs, have been well attended. In April a guest musicale will be given and then the annual picnic will close the club year.

Syracuse: Flash—Chapter more active than ever.

Item—Fall season opened with a Recruiting luncheon, where the organization of the alumnae chapter was explained to new girls.

Item—October 17—Chi birthday party at the Theta house with alumnae serving supper and giving a skit. Dr Norman Foster spoke on his travels in Russia and Germany in relation to their interest to women.

Big Item—District IV convention at Syracuse in November. Large attendance by local chapters and out of town groups in the district. Dean Eugenia Leonard, Dean of women at Syracuse, spoke.

Item—Another important affair—Christmas luncheon and meeting December 9.

Item—Evening meeting January 8. Business first, then an illustrated talk on the Educational system of Syracuse.

Item—Founders'-day supper for both college and Alumnæ chapters. Professor Sidman Poole spoke on his trip to the Gaspé Peninsula.

Item—March 13, evening meeting for election of officers—Congratulations to Hollis Comstock Davis, out-going president, and to Dorothy Tallman Cummings, in-coming president.

Item—April 11, tea for Theta Mothers' club. Congratulations to the organization for their fine cooperation and many gifts to Chi.

Item—The last affairs: the spring luncheon and June banquet.

Flash! Chapter finds by budgeting and cutting cost of luncheon and supper meetings that the dues may be reduced one dollar—Hopes of stimulating interest and increasing membership by this measure are raised considerably.

Topeka: We have tried a new plan with great success! Hobbies. The president appointed nine group chairmen, and assigned every member to one group. Each group is responsible for one luncheon, for which it stands the bill. Each member attending the luncheon deposits twenty-five cents in the chapter treasury, to be used for chapter needs and chapter charitable work.

Hobbies featured: quilts, each one bringing her pet quilt to display. One collection of 25 quilts was the surprise and delight of the afternoon; travel, with Mrs Donald Heath, Alpha Upsilon, talking on Haiti, where she has lived some years with her diplomatic service husband; puppets, when Dr Gray, Topeka's fancier of puppets showed the construction of a marionette show in every detail; literature, with Mrs Walter Weidling reviewing the much talked of novel, Within this present; Founders'-day celebrated by 100 Thetas at a dinner, where Mrs Estey, talked on early initiation forms, and a group presented a skit, Annual street cleaners' banquet; rare glass, with Mrs Marjorie Lewis displaying and explaining her fine hobnail collection; gardening, when Robert Jordan, expert gardener, told us what flowers like our climate, and gave many practical hints to aid the gardener. April's hobby is a secret from all but the group responsible. There will be a picnic for Alpha Upsilon, long established custom, that ends with initiation of seniors into the alumnæ association.

Tulsa: A high light of the year was the Founders'-day banquet with a presentation of a marionette show written by Claribelle Abercrombre, which depicts the founding of Kappa Alpha Theta, with each Founder represented by a puppet dressed in authentic 1870 clothes, and hair done as in pictures of the Founders themselves.

An amusing feature at one meeting was a white elephant sale, where instead of auctioning off the elephants, chances were sold on a punch board with the elephants as prizes. The money collected was sent to the Friendship fund.

Washington: A year of interest and enthusiasm. Average attendance, at interesting though informal meetings—40.

Programs included: Katharine Seelye Wallace described, in her inimitable fashion, the Economic conference in London, which she and her husband attended. The pleasure of entertaining Mary Ward, Tau, business manager of the Civic repertory theater, who held us spellbound as she talked of Miss LeGallienne's work and ideals for the theater, and described the annual performance of Peter Pan for the slum children of New York and their touchingly naive reactions. A supper party at the lovely Alexandria home of Genevieve Forbes Herrick, where "a delightful time was had by all." A dinner dance at the New Shoreham. A white elephant sale. Founders'-day formal luncheon at the Sulgrave club when 64 Thetas honored Thetas 64th birthday.

Of outstanding interest was the awarding of the Betty Tipton Lindsay fellowship, with its many committee meetings to inform itself fully on all questions involved. The untiring labors of Mrs Eagan were of great assistance and were appreciated both by the rest of the committee and by the chapter.

We are looking forward with pleasure to convention, so near that many of us can at last realize one of our dearest hopes, attending convention, so many of us plan to drive to Asheville, for at least part of the convention week.

ALUMNAE CLUB NEWS

Austin: The club has adopted Alpha Theta's pledges, each alumna acting as Big Sister to one pledge. The club gave a party for all Alpha Theta pledges, soon after pledge day. Meetings are luncheons at Alpha Theta's house, the hostess group for each meeting paying the costs of extra expense to the chapter. The Mothers of Thetas have also been entertained by the club this year.

Grand Rapids: Meets monthly for dinner and bridge. Has a circulating library among members and later plans to turn over the books to Eta and Beta Pi chapter libraries.

Hartford: Reports a nice Founders'-day party, with 12 present. Bad weather preventing New Haven Thetas from accepting an invitation to join in this birthday party.

Vancouver: Activities. A rushing party for Beta Upsilon. Collection of discarded clothes, which the club mended, remodelled, etc., and turned over to Dorothy Barrow, social worker, for distribution to needy families. Toys, preserves and other food, collected and distributed in Christmas hampers. A charity fund replenished by a tea dance following the Stanford-U.B.C. rugby game. Then the club bought clothing for needy pupils of a school, which they also supplied with cod liver oil, and yarn for mothers who had told the school nurse they wanted to knit. The club took the initiative in getting the city Panhellenic interested in the rushing rules, and better ones adopted for the University of British Columbia.

Thirty members, an active and progressive year!

San Antonio: Has had a glorious year. The fall tea brought a distribution of year-books, with member's names, addresses, phone numbers, and the year's program. Book reviews have been a chief feature at each meeting, new books, Theta history, and older books of worth were on the list. Founders'-day was celebrated with an impressive banquet, followed by a gathering in a replica chapter room where the ritual was read. The club was hostess to the city Panhellenic in March, a fashion revue entertained the guests; and a few week's later was hostess to Austin alumnae club. The year officially will close with a June breakfast for the Thetas returning from college, though there will be several rushing parties during the summer.

Long Island: Reports its first year was a happy one. Supper meetings, bridge benefit, teas, and friendly afternoon meetings have been enjoyed by an average attendance of twenty. The club considers nearby Alpha Kappa chapter as its chief interest. It helped the chapter find rooms last fall, and helped to furnish the rooms. A silver contribution at each meeting is taken to help Alpha Kappa maintain its rooms. The alumnae club reports their association with the college girls has been a great pleasure, while Alpha Kappa reciprocates by keen appreciation of the club's aid and loyal support.

CHAPTER NEWS

ALPHA DePauw

It was with a particular sense of fitness that we chose as our stunt theme for the state luncheon in March,

"There was an old woman who lived in a shoe,
She had so many children she didn't know what to do."

We solved the problem nicely by pledging another freshman in February—Margaret Moseley—increasing our number of children to an even thirty.

Indeed, our poor little chapter room has been groaning every Monday night since 19 new initiates have been herded in to cram the corners. March 3, we initiated Marian Albaugh, Jane Anderson, Lucy Ann Barch, Virginia Cline, Peggy Clippinger, Martha Coleman, Jane Fry, Susan Hardy, Margaret Jennings, Dorothy Kenna, Edith Langtry, Betty Messick, Mary Robison, Mary Ellen Springer, Marjorie Swenson, Miriam Waldow, Isabel Whitcomb, Alice Katherine Waggaman, Elizabeth Scipio.

Second semester has brought a reckoning in the matter of grades. Alpha is rejoicing that Theta has regained its position as leader in scholarship among campus groups. Mary Louise Merrill, Lucy Ann Balch, Isabel Whitcomb, and Marjorie Swenson were elected to Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women scholarship honorary.

Jeanne Smith is the new president of the Association of Women Students, Margaret Gridley is treasurer of W.S.A. Maude Dorsett is vice-president of Y.W.C.A. and has been elected to Duzer Du, dramatic society.

ANASTASIA CLOTHIER

28 March 1934

Married: Helen Thackrey to George B. Douglas, Feb. 25. Mullinville, Kan.—Dorothy Jane Shideler to Charles William Mead. Apt. C-4 904 Hinman av. Evanston, Ill.—Esther Smith to Thane R. Halstead, 118½ S. Maple av. Oak Park, Ill.

New addresses: Lucy Pauline Cooper Bates (Mrs Barrett F.) Dunmopin, Cooper rd. Kenosha, Wis.—Marjorie Shirlaw Puckett (Mrs John W.) 4947 State Line rd. Kansas City, Mo.

BETA Indiana

Beta chapter is taking a prominent part in campus dramatic productions. Thetas were chosen to portray three of Mrs March's four daughters in the University Theater's production of Little Women. Margaret Campbell played Meg; Betty Anne Brown, Amy; and Jean Bedwell, Beth. Betty Anne Brown had the feminine lead in Behold that Dreamer. Mildred Bettman was in the cast of the campus musical production Good News while Helen Walls, Ellen DeSchipper and Rosemary Humphreys danced in the chorus and in the Cabaret Dance given in conjunction with Good News.

At a Mortar Board tea, Mary Louise Warner, Rosemary Humphreys, Ruth Reece, and Madeline Wylie were among the thirty-four freshman women honored. These women are recognized by Mortar Board for scholarship, leadership, and character. These same girls and Ruth Johnson were elected to Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary.

Original poetry by Helen Higgenbotham and a short story by Constance Olsen were read at a recent meeting of the English Club. Louise Wylie is president of the English Club. Peggy Bittner is treasurer of Y.W.C.A.

Ellen DeSchipper was pledged March 8.

Lucky or unlucky as the number may be, we have thirteen graduating seniors: Marian Brockaway, Eloise Coffing, Madeline Folk, Matilda Connover, Juel Kenney, Edmonia Kintner, Virginia Selby, Barbara Nelle Schlaffer, Martha Llewelyn, Justine Green, Constance Olsen, Josephine Meloy, and Marjorie Wills.

LOUISE WYLIE

30 March 1934

Married: Madalyn Savage to J. M. Hicks, jr. 237 E. 68th st. New York, N.Y.—Kathryn Isbell to Miles Washington Jones. 7128 Bennett ave. Apt. 1-B, Chicago, Ill.

Mr and Mrs Warnock Spain (Ruth Williamson) and two children, moved, in Feb. to Richwood, Ohio, where Mr Spain will open a store about the middle of March.

GAMMA Butler Miss Mary Rieman, president of District I, found no rest in the Theta house, for when she paid Gamma a visit, the girls were so glad to see her and talk over Theta affairs that they kept her up till the wee sma' hours. March 3, Miss Rieman held class meetings, conferences with officers, and active meeting. We regretted that she was unable to stay for initiation March 4. Gamma initiated Frances Amick (sister of Betty), Martina Sink, Josephine Symms, and Mary Vance Trent. After initiation, there was a formal banquet at the chapter house with Martha Rose Scott as toastmistress. Initiates were presented with corsages. Martina Sink received a recognition pin, for the cleverest pledge notebook.

Gamma worked hard for the Butler Relays, March 24. Grace Barnett was a member of the Queen's Court. In the parade, March 23, Theta had seven decorated cars, and placed third among twenty entrants.

Jean Southard was elected Band Sweetheart. She was Freshman Rose last year.

Investing more faith in silver tongued orators than in golden silence, Theta signed up for intramural debating. Our team consists of: Eleanor Hack, Agnes Hinkle, Helen Clever, and Marian Ballinger. At the debaters banquet given for the debate squad by Tau Kappa Alpha, national forensic fraternity, Helen Clever and Marian Ballinger were awarded certificates denoting forensic achievement. The latter received a golden key for participation in the intercollegiate debate tournament held at Manchester College. Helen is a member of Tau Kappa Alpha.

Gamma pledged five girls during mid-semester, Louise Garrigus, Betty Lutz, Katherine Lyzotte, Jean Smith, and Phyllis Smith; and re-pledged Josephine Symms and Mary Vance Trent. (Jo and Mary Vance were initiated March 4.)

In a pledge class of thirty, with an approximate total of 450 hours, there were only seven hours of "C," on final marks, the rest being "B"—or above. Gamma is proud of its pledges, for scholastic and social achievements. At their bridge-party and style-show, given to raise money for the pledge dance, they cleared over one hundred dollars.

Thespiis, dramatic organization, gave as its final major production The School for Scandal. Theta had Bonnie Habich cast as Lady Teazle. Florence Gipe is also in the cast, and Catharine Heard is chairman of the Contact Committee.

Sigma Alpha Iota, national music society, has elected Mary Martha Hockensmith and Judith Miley.

Five Thetas received commendation letters from acting President Putnam for scholarship, Barbara Baumgartner, Betty Davenport, Mary Frances Diggs, Charlene Heard, and Julia Henderson.

Our Theta Mothers' Club conducted "A Mile Of Pennies" drive, and there were miles of smiles as the pennies came rolling in.

A faculty committee, headed by Mrs Thor Wesenburg, Dean of Women, selected the following Thetas as Y.W.C.A. officers and committee chairmen: Mildred Grayson, vice-president; Esther Hoover, social service; Mary Katherine Mangus, world-fellowship; and Jane Rothenburger, inter-racial.

Helen Clever and Catharine Heard are in Thespiis productions broadcast over WFBM.

April 12, Gamma entertained Acting-President and Mrs Putnam and Mr and Mrs Thor Wesenburg, faculty members, at dinner. It is our intention to continue these dinners until the end of the semester to promote faculty-student relationships.

GAMMA DEUTERON Ohio Wesleyan

boast of the year. Gamma deuteron hurdled eight places to take the cup held last semester by Alpha Delta Theta. Betty Clark and Jeanne Pontius were elected by Phi Beta Kappa.

Initiated, March 24: Nancy Badley, Delhi, India; Mary Jane Barrett, Tiffin; Betty Ann, Cochrun, Akron; Betty Huffman, Frances Pearl Jones, Esther West, Delaware; Nell Jones, Norwood; Frances Prout, Sandusky; Margaret Smith, Avon Lake; Janet Spiker, Fort Thomas, Kentucky; Joan Sullivan, Marietta; Mary Tarbell, Worthington; Janet Troxell, Toledo. At the banquet that evening Janet Spiker won the crested ring awarded annually to the outstanding pledge, and Mary Tarbell gave the pledge toast. Mary Jane Barrett's name will be engraved on the scholarship cup by virtue of her almost perfect point average.

Two Thetas, both from Glenolden, Pennsylvania, were sole candidates for the presidency of W.A.A., but Carolyn Brogan chalked up a slight edge. Carolyn was recently elected by Kappa Delta Pi, national education honorary. Georgiana Redrup succeeds Harriette Crawford as women's editor of The Transcript, campus semi-weekly news-sheet. Helen Beal was named associate editor, and Barbara Goold becomes the fifth consecutive Theta issue editor (no other women's fraternity has had more than two).

When a disastrous fire razed Delaware's city hall, Ohio Wesleyan's Little Theater, housed in the same building, was completely destroyed. So The Amazons was staged at the local high school, with Donna Hornby in a character rôle. Donna was one of three-co-eds chosen to take the annual women's varsity debate trip to Kentucky. Lois Cupps made Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic fraternity.

Isabel Zimmerman, Chicago, was pledged February 7. After three years' absence, Betty Covert has returned as a senior.

HELEN BEAL

Initiation guests included: Mrs Eugenia Overturf, Willoughby; Marjory Penn Sullivan (Mrs H. L.), Marietta; Sylvia West, Helen Lohr, Marjorie Best and town alumnae.

DELTA Illinois

Delta is proud to announce the initiation of Isabel Godman, Chicago; Kathleen Arnold, San Diego, California; Betty Jane Warren, Watseka; Sydney Auer, Decatur; Dorothy Blum, Champaign; June Carpenter, Chicago; Ruth Cooper, Aurora; Marian Frank, Jacksonville; Carolyn Kimball, Taylorville; Ruth Large, Carolyn Agnew, Rockford; Pattie Martin, Evanston; Rosamond Penwell, Pana; Patricia Sargeant, Evansville, Indiana; and Katherine Schmoeger, Peoria, March 24.

Delta won both the volleyball and basketball interfraternity tournaments, giving the chapter, for the second consecutive year, the plaque awarded by W.A.A. Marjorie Baeder was captain of the basketball team, and Marcella Clifford of the volleyball team. Both Marjorie and Marcella were chosen for the varsity volleyball team.

Delta holds many important positions on campus. Helen Russell has just been elected president of W.A.A. while Jean Koehler was chosen vice-president of Y.W.C.A. Ruth Martin has the lead in Theater guild's spring production, Beyond the horizon. Carolyn Kimball, Sydney Auer, Mildred Fisher and Marcella Clifford are working on committees for the play.

An informal dance was given by the pledges in honor of the chapter, February 16. The chapter house took on a nautical air that evening. The stairway was disguised as a gangplank and the rest of the house was a quite authentic reproduction of a modern ocean liner. A tea was given February 17.

The chapter was delighted in having Mrs Katherine Kircher as a guest February 17-20. It is a great pleasure to know her and we sincerely hope that she may soon visit us again.

RUTH POWNALL

31 March 1934

Engaged: Valeen Gabeline to Jay Erwin Tone, jr., of Des Moines, Ia.

Married: Vida Merchant to James C. Himmelwright, 956 E. South st. Frankfort, Ind.—Mary Virginia Wilkes to J. Freeland Harrold, 1640 W. Adams st. Chicago, Ill.

New address: Edith Shaw, Palm apts. Ottawa, Ill.

ETA Michigan

Eta announces the pledging of Marya Hoffman, Detroit, Michigan, March 13. We are sorry to lose by graduation, this June, Dorothea May Hunt, Laura Jean Kempf, Eleanor Thoman, Grace Unger, Norma Lou Cove, Mary Leckner, Jeanne Voorhies.

Mary Jean Pardee is on a Panhellenic committee for the revision of rushing rules. There has been some agitation on the campus for the abolition of "hell week." The Panhellenic Board plans to consider this matter seriously. Whether or not a reform is carried Eta will undoubtedly establish a new system of pledge education. Ann Timmons, who now wears the scholarship ring, was recognized by Mortar Board as a potential member.

We are giving a faculty dinner April 25; May 11-13 a Mothers' house party; May 19 our annual spring dance; and May 20 a faculty tea. The Mothers' house party, a long standing tradition with us, will be the week-end of the annual May festival in Ann Arbor. The festival lasts for several days and includes music and dramatic productions starring famous singers and actors. The alumnae of Ann Arbor are entertaining the sophomores at dinner April 5 at the home of Mrs Alexander G. Ruthven. Eta is planning an Eta reunion for the week-end of graduation.

All the members of Eta wish to tell Mu chapter how glad they are to have Betty Hill at the University of Michigan.

ELIZABETH NICAL

27 March 1934

Engaged: Eleanor Thoman to Richard Reynolds, Δ K E.—Jeanne Eleanor Voorhies to Robert Beamer Spencer.

Married: Margaret Seaman to Stephen Francis Dunn, Θ Δ X, Cornell, Apr. 7.—Marian Tallmadge to Donald S. Scott, 3278 Townsend av. Grand Rapids, Mich.—Ruth Stesel to Horton Stickel.

Born: To Mr and Mrs E. W. Puttkammer (Helen Louise Monroe) a daughter, Helen Lorna, Feb. 15, 1933. 1348 E. 48th st. Chicago, Ill.

New address: Florence Louise Wolfe Preece (Mrs Charles F.) 421 10th av. N.E. St. Petersburg, Fla.

IOTA Cornell

February 17 Iota initiated Margaret Douglas, Eleanor Elste, Alice Guttman, Mary Lauman, Josephine Biddle, Norma Nordstrom, Katharine Skehan, and Frances White. The following day we were pleased to have Mrs Hunter, Delta, and Mrs Walters, Alpha Chi with us for tea. A week later we welcomed friends to our annual student tea.

Mrs Sailor and Mrs Lauman gave the juniors of the chapter a delightful buffet supper at "Aunt Sal's" home March 11. March 16 the chapter gave an informal dance with shipwreck decorations. The refreshments consisting of cocoanuts, dried fruit and life-savers promoted the shipwreck atmosphere.

Iota takes great pride in announcing that her scholarship average is 78.78 which represents an upward leap of four points from her previous average.

Frances Lauman, Norma Nordstrom, Ruth Ryerson and Virginia Yoder were elected to Mortar Board. Maida Hooks was elected president of Sage, and Virginia Yoder, chairman of activities. Marion Blenderman, Eleanor Elste, Julia Hardin, Doris Hendee, Marjorie Webb, and Margaret Weber were appointed vice-presidents of Sage and Risley. Doris Hendee is chairman of the sophomore party committee.

Dramatic club productions are requiring the time of many of our members. Julia Hardin, Frances Lauman, Katharine Skehan, Eleanor Stager, and Barbara White worked on Ibsen's Enemy of the People. Alice Guttman, Mary Lauman, Katharine Skehan, and Frances White are rehearsing for Alice in Wonderland, freshman women's play. Eleanor has a part in one of the one-act plays to be given directly after vacation.

ELEANOR M. STAGER

1 April 1934

Engaged: Irene S. Nichols to Walter M. Wardell.—Helen Nuffort to Donald Saunders.

Born: To Mr and Mrs Charles F. Nettleship, jr. (Lucille Severance) a son, Charles F. III, Jan. 29.

KAPPA Kansas

February 7 we pledged Barbara Bramwell, Belleville, and Katherine Moodie, Los Angeles, California.

March 3 we initiated Lillian Sands, Ruth Armstrong, Frances Burrow, Josephine Burrow, Alverta Chaney, Betty Creager, Mary Catherine Dougherty, Betty Gibson, Betty Hamilton, Mary Hause, Maude Hough, Margaret Jennings, Shirley Kroh, Florabeth Lebrecht, Mary Ellen Miller, Jean McKeen, Mary Nicholson, Jean Russell, Polly Strandberg, Ruth Swarthout, and Betty Williams. We were pleased to have Mrs Lebrecht with us at the initiation banquet.

Margaret Sherwood was elected president of the W.S.G.A. and Margaret McNown treasurer. With Margaret Jennings still a Freshman officer we now have three members on the Women's Council.

Margaret Sherwood and Lillian Sands were chosen junior beauty queens to appear in the next issue of the Jayhawker.

March 18 we gave a buffet supper for our dates. April 14 is the date of our annual spring formal party.

CATHERINE GLEISSNER

No date.

Born: To Mr and Mrs Arthur S. Johnson (Helen-Mae Marcy) a daughter, Mary Lane, Feb. 27. 2765 Brant St. San Diego, Calif.—To Mr and Mrs B. W. New Haven, Conn.

Alice Cochran Babcock is assistant manager of the advertising office (Pacific Coast) of Curtis publications at San Francisco, Calif.

Married: Ruth Charlene Rouse to William S. Norton, July 22, 1933.—Helen Harper to J. Warren Dooley, Dec. 23, 1933. Washington, D.C.—Geraldine Pardee to Charles Markle Knite, Mar. 17.

4108 Carolina, Houston, Tex.—Isabel Humphrey to Carl R. Guilkey, Jan. 1. 315 S. Penn av. Independence, Kan.

New addresses: Mary Greef Harris (Mrs John) 1509 Lincoln st. Topeka, Kan.—Eunice Ann Goepfert Foster (Mrs Cecil) 1542 Hauser blvd. Los Angeles, Calif.—Mary Torrance Ellsworth (Mrs R. A.) Ft. Bliss, Tex.

Evelyn Swarthout daughter of Dean D. M. Swarthout of University of Kansas, will sail from England April 1 after nearly 2 years of study with Tobias Matthey, noted teacher of piano in London. Evelyn gave her first London recital recently in Wigmore hall and received gratifying reviews.

LAMBDA Vermont

Initiated, March 23: Mildred L. Barlett, and Marion L. Bartlett, Bradford, Mass.; Katherine M. Babbitt, Hartford, Conn.; Elizabeth E. Gallup, Saylesville, R.I.; Pauline Bristol, Sally M. Carr, Jean B. Young, and Dorothy A. Oldfield, of Burlington; and Norma E. Piper, of Windsor. Pledged, Margaret Lockwood, Sparta, N.J., and Edith Petrie, Danvers, Mass. We were particularly fortunate in having Mrs. Donald Sinclair, our District president, with us for pledging.

Student Union elections were held recently, and Elizabeth Rich was chosen chief justice; Carolyn Hill, first vice president; and Frances Rowe, treasurer.

Natalie Richardson and Barbara Wears are members of the Junior Prom refreshment committee; Mary Kay Tupper and Winona Oatley, of the decorations committee; and Mildred Bartlett, of the Junior Week Peerade committee.

Janet Dodds and Helen Miller placed in the first twenty in the annual National Rifle Association contest for women's individual intercollegiate championship.

Alice McConnell is a member of the cast for the spring play. Edith Petrie has a rôle in the college opera. Frances Rowe, Elizabeth Haig, Sylvia Jarvis, Elizabeth Gallup, and Pauline Bristol had parts in class plays.

Mary Kay Tupper gave a short talk on paintings at an Art exhibition held recently under the auspices of Panhellenic. The exhibition was arranged for the purpose of interesting the student body in the fine arts.

LOIS WHITCOMB

28 March 1934

Engaged: Annette Burns to Harry Hess, of Princeton, N.J.—Elizabeth Hollis to William R. Bedell, Σ N.

Born: to Mr and Mrs Robert B. Alexander (Laura Bliss) a daughter, Feb. 22.

Mary Jean Simpson is in charge of the Vermont state C.W.A. work for women.—Elizabeth Hollis is a volunteer worker for the Vermont Children's Aid Society.—Phyllis Hill, Nina Ryder and Thelma Edmunds are engaged in emergency relief work in the state.—Helen Daniels Robinson and Isabel Holmes appeared in the Burlington theater club mid-winter production, Bird in hand.

New addresses: Eleanor Lockwood Nowlin (Mrs J. E.) 15416 Lake av. Lakewood, Ohio.—Dorothy Hall Barstow (Mrs A. W.) 17 Methyll st. Providence, R.I.

MU February 24 Mu initiated Mary Virginia Jones (daughter of Mary Sansom), Chicago; Kingsley Bishop, Nyack, New York; Marjorie Kiebert, Alice Church, Betty Caldwell, Dorothy Henderson, Mary Lee Knapp, Rowena Orr, Meadville; Lida Baltz, Uniontown; Velma Briggs, Duquesne; Virginia Campbell, Beaver Falls; Helen Edmundson, Mt. Lebanon; Mary Jackson, Oil City; Evelyn Jones, Pittsburgh; Sally McVey, Clairton; Ruth Meyers, Evans City; Helen Roberta Wicks, Bellevue.

We were delighted that Theta headed the fraternity scholarship list for first semester.

Our Founders'-day banquet having been postponed because of a lengthened examination period, was celebrated February 22. Mrs Lavelly, chapter adviser, presided and our alumnæ guests, Mrs M. S. Jones and Mrs Chisolm spoke.

The chapter was entertained at tea by Mrs H. W. Church in her home. An enjoyable visit it proved to be for us all.

Mu is in the lead in basketball so far and hopes to win the plaque for the fourth consecutive year.

Frances Boone is social chairman of Associated women students, and Helen Wicks swimming chairman of Athletic board for next year.

AMY BISHOP

29 March 1934

Married: Virginia Campbell to Thomas Barber, Mar. 7. They will probably live in Beaver Falls, Pa.—Marian Sternberg to John Kirk. 715 Cranberry st. Erie, Pa.

Born: Mr and Mrs Lee Mason (Violet Troutman) a daughter, Mary Lee, Feb. 3. 7469 Schoyer av. Swissvale, Pa.

OMICRON In January we were honored by a visit from Mrs Athen, District president, and Mrs Wright, Grand vice-president. As it was Mrs Wright's first visit to California we had a grand time showing her around Los Angeles and Hollywood.

New pledges are, Katherine Cunningham, Virginia Rose, Jean Ferrey (sister of Caroline), and Betty McQuigan. They were presented to campus with a formal tea during the visit of Mrs Wright and Mrs Athen.

Marthaellen Broomfield was elected president of W.S.G.A. Thetas chosen by Amazons, the most important service organization on campus, are Marthaellen Broomfield and Gladys Harris. Peggy Chase is pledged to Phi Alpha Theta, national history society, and Ellen Stevens to the national art society, Delta Phi Delta.

March 4 we all left our studies far behind and went to Balboa for a week's vacation by the sea. Omicron's annual house-party is becoming more and more popular, so this year we had to rent one of the largest houses in town to accommodate everyone—and still there was the everlasting "doubling up." Everyone had a grand time, though, and returned to college only a few shades lighter than mahogany.

New address: Martha Burkett Plumb (Mrs Preston B. jr.) 2657½ Ellendale pl. Los Angeles, Calif.

RHO
Nebraska

The thrilling privilege of meeting our grand president was given Thetas of Rho, when Mrs Margaret K. Banta visited us March 5-6. There was a short meeting the last night of her stay, from which we all emerged with a new love for and interest in Theta.

The past president of Beta Xi, Virginia Chisholm, was also our guest during March. Virginia visited Elizabeth Shearer.

Jane Clearly was elected to Theta Sigma Phi. Elizabeth Shearer was elected treasurer of Tassels, pep organization.

Formal pledging was March 15 for Vera Mekesser and Patsy Armstrong, both of Lincoln.

Initiation will be March 31. The banquet which follows will be at the University club. Those to be initiated are:

Elizabeth Apperson, Catherine Crancer (daughter of Mamie Anderson Crancer), Mary Yoder, Jeanne Buirvall, Roberta Smith, Mary Ruth Readish (daughter of Ruth Tibbets Readish), Elizabeth Shearer, Katherine Shearer, Dorothy O'Connor, Elizabeth Glover, Mary Lou Glover, Janet Dickinson, Cynthia Bedley (sister of Alice Bedley), Helen Luhus, Jane Cleary (daughter of Frances Jane Cunningham Cleary), Mary Ann Martin, Carolyn Lehnhoff, Jane Van Sickle, Edytha Long, Maurene Corothers, Courtney Reider, Jane McCaw, Louise Powell (sister of Doris), Patsy Armstrong.

LEAH CARLSEN

Married: Dorothy Silvis to Lt. Harold Grant, B O II, Mar. 21, in Honolulu.

New address: Catherine Gilger, 7044 Pershing, St. Louis, Mo.—Thelma McPherson Woods (Mrs F. K.) 828 S. 16th st. Lincoln, Neb.—Sophie Webster, R.F.D. 1, Box 326A. Menlo Park, Calif.

SIGMA Toronto

Sigma was delighted to welcome Mrs Grasett at the beginning of February, especially as her visit coincided with our local Panhellenic banquet. Theta was represented by Jean Atkinson, Jessie Fleming and Louise Whytock in the skits which followed the banquet. There was a dance after the banquet to raise funds for a scholarship, which was a huge success, both from the standpoint of enjoyment and of the amount of money raised.

The night following the Panhellenic banquet we had an informal supper meeting so that all the Sigmas would have an opportunity to become acquainted with Mrs Grasett. She gave a most interesting talk including many useful hints about rushing parties. Rushing is going to be a busy time at Toronto next year with a new rule to the effect that all rushing of out-of-town girls is to be confined to the first three days of the fall term.

February 21 we gave our spring formal at the home of Helen and Elizabeth Walton. Their beautiful home in Rosedale was an ideal setting for a brilliant and enjoyable dance.

March 5, the alumnae kindly asked the actives to join their meeting, at which several alumnae gave short descriptions of the work which they were now doing. March 11, Mrs George Scrogie gave a special alumnae advisory tea when each active was given an alumna "fo-mo." It is a new idea with Sigma and has started off with great success. Each active is given an alumna for a special friend to enable her to become better acquainted with the rest of the alumnae.

With exams approaching, we decided to wind up our social activities with a tea for our alumnae chapter, on the last Sunday in March.

March 26 Betty Mark was pledged.

LOUISE WHYTOK

27 March 1934

Born: to Mr and Mrs Stewart (Francis Trent) a daughter, February 3.

Dorothy McEvoy has been moved from the Montreal Tariff Board to the New York one.—Mrs W. Kasper Fraser (McPhedran) is now the president of the Child Welfare Council of Toronto, a position formerly held by the wife of the President of our University.—Sophie Boyd is now doing social work with the Neighborhood Workers in Toronto.—Mr Kenneth Ketchum (Esther de Beauregard's husband) has been promoted to Assistant Headmaster at St. Andrew's College, Aurora, Ontario.

Don't forget convention dates, June 28-July 3

TAU
Northwestern

February 19, after second semester rushing, Tau pledged Eleanor Baird, Helen Holton, and Rose Kerner.

Initiation was February 25 for Jane Amend, Marjorie Amend, Marjorie Beebe, Mary Angela Berkey, Patsy Bolyston, Elizabeth Bristol, Virginia Burnham, Bonnie Donahue, Frances Griggs, Dorothy Haugh, Marjorie Helm, Betty Jenkins, Lois Johnson, Nancy Lewis, Ann Linn, Betty Llewelyn, Janet Maechtle, Ruth Myers, Natalie Rogers, Elaine Smith, Helen Warren, and Myra Alice Warner. After initiation there was a banquet at the Georgian hotel in Evanston. Mrs Grasett presided as toastmistress.

Theta was well represented in the annual Waa-Mu show Sweet music by Alice Bauman, Marjorie Beebe, Bonnie Donahue, Myra Jane Hutton, and Judith Wood. Mary Virginia McKee was elected president of Panhellenic.

ELAINE SMITH

1 April 1934

Married: Mary Yanochowski to Frederick Neilson. Lake Shore hotel, Cleveland, Ohio.—Pauline Boyd to Harold Eugene Bailey, 2 N, 2217 Ridge av. Evanston, Ill.—Harriet Hoskins to Edward Latimer Wilson, Feb. 16. 615 N. Plum st. Farmer City, Ill.—Anne W. Irvine to Howard J. Porter. 514 Cotton av. W.E. Birmingham, Ala.

New address: Louise E. Granger Clark (Mrs William E.) 531 Grove st. Glencoe, Ill.

Born: To Mr and Mrs R. W. Schneider (Alice Shackleton) a daughter Marietta Hawes, Dec. 1, 1933. 1608 Sherwin av. Chicago, Ill.

UPSILON
Minnesota

Word traveled around the campus about Ellen Hulbert's capable gavel wielding activities at the Theta house this year and hung over Panhellenic heads as they scribbled their next year's presidential preferences, carrying weight enough to tip the ballot box in favor of Upsilon's president for Panhellenic leader. Ellen "X'd" her hotel room on a postcard dropped to us while she saw Washington, D.C. sights between Panhellenic convention duties, April 2, 3, and 4.

Theta went up from 23rd place to 13th place in the scholarship rankings of women's fraternities on the Minnesota campus during fall quarter.

Our winter formal was in the St. Paul University club, March 10.

Marjorie Morrill, president of Pinafore, sophomore organization of the W.S.G.A., pounded her water glass at the winter quarter dinner get-together to announce a skit by Bettie Ragland titled Goldilocks and the Three Bars, presenting the moral that the perfect cocktail contains a dash of activities, a jigger of socialities, and a drought of scholarship. The skit had been the life of the party at the Founders'-day banquet so Bettie staged it again to entertain at the sophomore banquet.

We'll have talk of a newly decorated house to add to our rushing conversation next fall from October 2 to 9 because the alumnae have taken our quarters in hand and now there is a blue bedroom with walnut furniture; a red and tan room featuring shiny red chintz drapes pleated around the edges; a violet and yellow sleeping room; and last but not least our pride and joy, a modernistic room with walls in a rosy tan shade and rug in matching hue; a love seat and beds covered in turquoise blue chintz; and odd shaped furniture in a rose-ivory. The living-room, dining-room, hallway and music room will be a treat for our after vacation eyes.

MARY BRENNAN

28 March 1934

Married: Louise Holahan to Charles Reynolds McGrail. 1135 Lunt st. apt. 302, Chicago, Ill.

Born: To Mr and Mrs Frederick MacKenzie (Marie Lynch) a son, John Lynch, Mar. 9. 3436 Hennepin av. Minneapolis, Minn.—to Dr and Mrs Robert Wilder (Alfrieda Davis) a daughter, Martha Ann, March 14. 5020 2nd av. South, Minneapolis, Minn.

PHI Stanford

Names turned into people for us when, the week-end of the third of March, Mrs Purd B. Wright, jr., and Mrs Folger Athearn arrived for a brief visit. It seemed strange and pleasant to have the Grand Vice-president and the president of District VI eating at our table and living in our rooms, and we will be glad to entertain them again as soon as possible.

We pledged Joan MacGowan, pretty, brown-eyed daughter of Kenneth MacGowan, Broadway producer, and picture producer of Little Women, of Bel-Air, Los Angeles. Because of the size of our pledge class, now nineteen, we are adding eight bedrooms to our house this summer: four on either side of the house. The dining-room will be extended, too.

A few weeks ago we had an innovation in faculty dinners. Our guests were Russian professor Lanz and his wife, public-speaking professor Bassett and his wife, graphic arts professor Ed Farmer and his wife, and economics professor Hailey; and perched at each of their places at the table was a little card bearing a personal poem about them which they were required to read aloud in the middle of the dinner. The juniors, who managed the dinner, waited on the table and then, just before the dessert course, put on a number of charades (which, to everyone's embarrassment, not one professor was able to guess). It was all very jolly and hilarious.

The Founders'-day banquet in Berkeley, January 27, was a joy and delight to Phi chapter, even though our singing as entertainment was pretty ragged. Ruth Newpert, one of our Portland pledges, received at the banquet the scholarship ring for the best grades in our freshman class.

The Masquers' club put on its quarterly play-reading two weeks ago, their selection being The Affairs of Anatol by Schnitzler, and Mary Anne Crary played one of the important feminine parts in it. Because of the necessity for raising money for the Stanford track team to go to the I.C.4A., fraternity women were chosen to go to various men's fraternity houses to make financial speeches and to have meals in the meantime. Esther Pickering, Helen Ray, Mary Rath, and Virginia Keim were Theta speakers. Helen Ray was elected junior woman on Executive Committee, Mary Lyons is the senior representative.

ELEANOR HARRIS

22 March 1934

Married: Ann Milburn to Thomas Barnes Post, X Ψ. They are living in Geneva, N.Y.—Jean Utt to Robert Frazee, Aug. 19, 1933. 3144 Lawrence St. San Diego, Calif.—Eleanor Davidson to Harold

L. Severance. 1360 Lombard st. apt. 103, San Francisco, Calif.—Charlotte Lovekin Duniway to Jerome Francis Donovan, jr. Feb. 2. 101 E. Kirke st. Chevy Chase, Md.

New address: Winifred Fry Webster (Mrs David Hutton) R.F.D. 1, B-326A, Menlo Park, Calif.

CHI Syracuse

Gold mining in Theta, an attempt to find and use the genuine precious values which the fraternity offers, was the theme of the initiation banquet March 16. Thirteen new members were welcomed as prospectors for gold: Margaret Allen, Marjorie Frick, Barbara Hammond, Eleanor Howes, Mary Ingalls, June Lilygren, Kathleen Mehl, Betty Nield, Jane Noerling, Nancy Ward, Katherine Sherwood, Harriet Taylor, and Jean Wetherald.

Charles Dana Gibson, famous illustrator, has named Kathleen Mehl one of four junior beauties; Arlene Lamirande was runner up. Fairest of campus freshmen is Betty Smith's title.

Claudia Terry was chairman of the Military Ball, March 13, at which Alice Morley was elected head cheer leader for the coming year. Jane Forbes is on the cheering squad.

Alpha Xi Alpha, honorary and professional design fraternity, has elected Helen Keuchle; Eta Pi Upsilon, senior women's society, Kathleen Mehl and Claudia Terry. Julie Iglehart, pianist, took part in one of the weekly broadcasts of Sigma Alpha Iota, women's music organization. Members of university glee club include Marian Cadle and Bricea Faus.

The institutional management course demands an interesting project of its seniors; each girl must manage a dinner, of a particular type of cookery, taking all responsibility for menus, costs, etc. Elizabeth Dunn has revealed the possibilities of the Pennsylvania Dutch Kitchen; Eleanor De Witt will present the rich foods of the southwest.

Mary Saylor had a leading rôle in the Boar's Head production of Lynn Riggs' poetic folk drama, The Cherokee Night. Josephine La Crosse, Adrienne Phelps, and Marie Heubner participated in the group of one-acts played by students in the school of speech.

Marian Cadle, Jean Wetherald, Mary Saylor, and Jane Grey Dudley, pledge, will appear in Chimes of Normandy.

CARRO CUMMINGS

PSI Wisconsin

As a result of the midyear rushing Psi pledged Jean Gardner of Evanston, Illinois.

Psi initiated March 11, Catherine Brummer (daughter of May Stiles Brummer of Psi), Jean Gardner, Barbara Hadley, Doris Hilmer, Katherine Miner, Adelaide Nation, Jane Nelson, Nancy and Lucy Jane Porter, Kathryn Spielmann, Carol Starbuck, and Mabel Wright. Afterward the new members and fourteen alumnae were entertained at a semi-formal banquet. Among the speakers was Mrs Brummer (May Stiles) who had come to attend her daughter's initiation.

We were happy to have Barbara Smith, a graduate of last year, and Dorothea Schmidtman, who transferred to Goucher last semester visit us. We lost Janis Baldwin this year when she finished in February. Although Jan has come back to visit us several times, we all miss her very much.

ANNE HIRST

30 March 1934

Engaged: Louise Dallas Hirst to William H. Lumpkin, X Φ.

Married: Alice Porter to Norton Krug, Mar. 3. 1035 N. 39th st. Milwaukee, Wis.—Martha Williamson to Robert Allison. 2032 Belmont rd. N.W. Washington, D.C.

New Addresses: Marion Conover Brown (Mrs Lloyd R.) 2726 9th st. Chico, Calif.—Dorothy Bell King (Mrs Merrill) 38 Cypress rd. Wellesley Hills.—Vera Lipkey Kemp (Mrs Richard) 460 Washington blvd. Oak Park, Ill.

Friends in Psi extend sympathy to Mr and Mrs Genard A. Florez (Catharine Wood) whose infant son, Ward Wood, died Feb. 2.

OMEGA California

Omega is off to an extra good start in '34 with the momentum from the visit of Mrs Purd B. Wright, national vice-president. Accompanied by the district president, Mrs Athearn, Mrs Wright spent three days at the house, offering suggestions to the new officers.

Our scholarship chairman, Ruth McClung, has already changed our study hall system. Last year it was held in the dining room, but now each girl has an individual table and lamp in a room on the third floor. Theta now stands fifteenth on the scholarship list, an advance of twelve steps over last year's record.

The Mothers' club gave us a grand set of monogrammed dishes that took an active part in the spring rush dinners.

By popular demand our formal this semester was given outside the house, in the home of Katherine Connick. It was a most successful affair. The faculty were entertained at a Sunday night buffet supper March 25.

Barbara Townsend has made us all proud of her fine work in Mask and Dagger productions. The last effort of that group was No Mother to Guide Them. Peggy Fairlie was elected to Ace of Clubs, social honor society.

FRANCES FINCH

26 March 1934

Married: Olive Brann to Carl King—Emily A. Bacon to W. Tate Bird, June 7, 1933. R.R. 1, Shelbyville, Ky.

Engaged: Jane Newport King to Edwards Huntington Metcalf.

New address: Mary Belcher Trapnell (Mrs Frederick). Waverly pl. Palo Alto, Calif.

ALPHA BETA Swarthmore

Alpha Beta's annual dance was at Lorraine Marshall's house, February 10. The combination of a beautiful house and Lo as hostess made the dance the best we can remember. March 14 we had a delightful supper party for the chapter in the lodge, managed by the capable Elizabeth Geddes. March 16, Lorraine Marshall attended the tea given for Miss Julia Dickson at Beta Eta of the University of Pennsylvania. Lorraine told us of our charming district president and of the hospitable hostesses at Beta Eta.

Sue Thomas was chosen for Mortar Board and is in charge of the preparation and publication of the Students' handbook. For the first time in its history, the Phoenix, Swarthmore's weekly newspaper, has a woman managing editor, Margaret Peters. Margaret, with Doris Sonneborn, also managed the properties of the Little Theater club play, Beyond the Horizon.

JANE B. SILL

25 March 1934

Engaged: Katherine Baker Warren to Henry B. Coles, jr., of Moorestown, N.J. Katherine is now a student at Pierce business school in Philadelphia.

Married: Anne Hillborn Philips to Weston Holt Blake of Wilmington, Del. Mar. 16.

New addresses: Anna Biddle Russell (Mrs Lawrence M.) 317 S. Iseminger st. Philadelphia, Pa.

Born: Dec. 4, 1933, Nancy, daughter of Mr and Mrs Paul D. Crowl (Edith Smiley). 3989 46th st. Sunnyside, L.I., N.Y.

ALPHA GAMMA Ohio State

Jean Reeder will play Sir Andrew Aguecheek in the Brown-ing Dramatic Society's June presentation of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. Jane Ann Evans, Betty Rose Williams, Betty Howe, Ruth Ervin, and Mary Ellen Funk, also have parts. Virginia Stark is in charge of costume-design for the play. Doris Campbell is vice-president of Y.W.C.A., and Jane Ann Evans second vice-president. Betty Howe, Ruth Ervin, and Betty Butterworth have been elected to Chi Delta Phi, honorary literary society.

The scholarship chairman reports an improvement in the chapter record for the winter quarter. Elizabeth Clark, Lillian Willis, and Anne Rutherford have won membership in Scholaris, freshman women's honorary. A number of Thetas have entered the new courses offered by the University which lead to distinction degrees.

ELLEN P. CHUBB

30 March 1934

Married: Virginia Jones to George Lothrop Dow, Nov. 11, 1933. 1502 Hinman av. Evanston, Ill.

New address: Carol Barricklow, 750 Franklin av. Columbus, Ohio.

ALPHA DELTA Goucher

On February 25, Alpha Delta initiated: Helen Cort, Fritz Harris, Jane McDermott, Doris McKuen, Eleanor Newnham, Winifred Schmidt, Ann Sturtevant, Olive Westbrooke, Elizabeth Lloyd White, and Charlotte Ziegler.

Alpha Delta's dance April 13 at Elkridge Kennels, will cause those "after-vacation blues" to vanish.

Mary Louise Kent has been nominated as a candidate for the May Court.

Marjorie Faust was chosen for Also Rans, club for those who are outstanding in extra-curricular activities.

DORIS MCKUEN

10 April 1934

Married: Margaret F. Coleman to Ralph Wayward Brownfield. 2315 DeLancey pl. Philadelphia, Pa.—Eleanor Branson to Charles W. B. Hurd, Mar. 17. The Westchester, Washington, D.C.

ALPHA ETA Vanderbilt

February 19 we entertained Mrs Moore, District president, at tea. The guests were our parents, the alumnæ, the officers of other women's fraternities, and the faculty. Mrs Moore stayed with us several days.

Barbara Denman led the Washington Ball with the president of the Student Council since she is the women's representative on that body. Sarah Bryan and Martha Billington won first and second prizes, respectively, for the best costumes.

For the third consecutive year, Alpha Eta has received the cup in the women's interfraternity basketball tournament, defeating Delta Delta Delta in the finals. The members of the team were Jane Brown (captain), Kathryn Lynch, Adelaide Shull, Barbara Denman, Henrietta Spicer, Sarah Bryan, Milbrey Wright, Jane Boggess, Katherine Harris, Elizabeth Dandridge, Kathryn Swiggart, Martha Noel and Marjorie O'Steen. We entertained the Delta Delta Delta team at lunch at the house.

At the Junior Prom five of the thirteen favorites were Thetas, Sarah Bryan, Waddell Walker, Louise Hardison, Kathryn Swiggart, and Milbrey Wright.

Plans are being made for the annual co-ed stunt night, sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. Henrietta Spicer is in charge of all stage properties, and Barbara Denman is ticket chairman. Jane Boggess is director of the Theta stunt.

The girls' and boys' glee clubs are to unite and give The Creation, by Joseph Haydn, April 27. Adele Youngberg is president of the girls' glee club, and Henrietta Spicer is treasurer.

SARAH COLTON

28 March 1934

Revel Tobin is secretary to Dr Slocum, physician in charge of Gregg house, sanitarium for the treatment of nervous diseases, located at Beacon-on-the-Hudson.

Catherine Mims is teaching at Beverly academy in New York City.

Miriam Hipple has a position with the Davidson county welfare commission, Nashville, Tenn. for which Mildred Stoves has been made Case supervisor.

Mildred Finnegan will study at the Sorbonne this summer.

Born: To Mr and Mrs Edmund F. Clark, jr. (Sophie Parsons) a son, Edmund F. Clark, III, Mar. 7.—To Mr and Mrs William A. Shapard, jr. (Harriet Smithson) a son, William A. III, Mar. 12. 1739 Barr av. Crafton, Pa.

Virginia Melton Ponton (Mrs Cooper) Beta Lambda, was a recent visitor at the chapter house.

Elizabeth Young Coppedge (Mrs E. P.) has a daughter, Louise Young, who is a sophomore at Southwestern university, Memphis, Tenn. The son of Rose Tate Stewart (Mrs Bain) is a sophomore at Vanderbilt university.

Married: Dec. 23, 1933, Helen Holt to W. C. Vaughan. 829 Myrtle pl. South Jacksonville, Fla.

ALPHA THETA Texas

We had a successful dance February 23.

March 23 initiation was held for Margaret Beverly, Margaret Gray, Katherine Pittinger, Austin; Virginia Coleman, Denver, Colorado; Virginia Breeding, Charlotte Dies, Aileen McLaughlin, Winnie Lee Mabry, Anne Willrich, Houston; Bess Breeden, Cuero; Martha Burns, Ruth Kirk, Frances Reichenstein, Dallas; Eileen Ferris, Parco, Wyoming; Mary Jane McMahan, Palestine; Louise Rhea, Ft. Worth; Marjorie Roach, Amarillo; and Elizabeth Whiddon, Gainesville.

We are happy to have Mrs Dazey, our housemother, back with us after an illness of several weeks.

We have two new pledges: Dorothy Baker, Sonora; and Harriet Dinger, Edinburgh.

We have been playing in intramural sports this spring. We won the swimming cup. Our baseball team will play Chi Omegas in the finals April 5.

Alpha Theta celebrated Founders'-day banquet March 24, after initiation. Peg Watkins proved an entertaining and successful toastmistress.

We are busy working on our floats for the University of Texas annual ROUND-UP which will be April 13-15.

Betty Bivins will be Duchess of Amarillo at the Battle of the flowers fiesta in San Antonio April 21. Elaine Anderson will be her Lady in Waiting. Mary Ellen Pope will be the Lady in Waiting to the Duchess of Austin.

ISABEL COLEMAN

1 April 1934

ALPHA IOTA Washington (St. Louis)

Theta won the intergroupswimming meet with a ten point lead. Mary Ellen Chivvis was individual second high-scorer; she won first place in the back-stroke and second place in the 25-yard free-style event. Elizabeth Conrad took second place in the breast stroke. This is our second championship this year, since Eloise Berg and Margaret Cornwell won the tennis match for us last term.

The girls who made their class basketball teams are: freshmen, Mary Ellen Chivvis, Margaret Cornwell, Lauramae Pippin; second team, Betty Noland and Helen Mardorf; sophomores, Josephine Sunkel; second team, Betty Share; Juniors, Kate D'Arcy, Margaret Gordon, Jane Russell.

We were happy to receive a visit from our Grand alumnae secretary, Mrs Kircher, who attended our chapter meeting February 22, and gave us several helpful suggestions.

March 3 at the home of Nellie Peters we initiated Mary Ellen Chivvis, Betty Noland, Dorothy Dittman, Catherine Bull, Mary Evelyn Fox (sister of Sophia), Virginia Henwood, Betty Willert, Margaret Cornwell, Helen Mardorf (sister of Marian), Pauline Bartels, and Lauramae Pippin. Grace Powe was unable to take all of her final exams at the usual time because of illness, and will be initiated a few weeks later.

Elizabeth Cheney has a part in Lightnin', Thrysus annual production, and Mary Virginia Goerner and Elizabeth Conrad are understudies for two other parts. Lauramae Pippin has a leading part in Shoot The Works, Quadrangle Club Musical Comedy. Coed Vodvil was presented March 9 and 10 with Miriam Duke in charge of our skit.

Catherine Bull is one of five girls from whom the Hatchet Queen will be chosen. The remaining four girls will be maids to the queen.

MARGARET GORDON

27 March 1934

Engaged: Ethel Chenault Kingsland to Charles Baird Peper.

New addresses: Lolita Cass Wistar (Mrs Richard) Rosemont, Pa.—Mary H. Skeen Matthews (Mrs J. Lepere) 1211 N. Mercer st. New Castle, Pa. They have a small daughter, aged 3.

ALPHA KAPPA Adelphi

February 19 Ruth Schlobohm, Annette Riordan and Mildred Lohnaas were initiated at Helen Lucas's house in Brooklyn, New York. The following Saturday the new members and pledges gave us a bridge and tea at the home of Ruth Schlobohm.

Mildred Wohnsiedler helped make our Varsity Show, Dover Road, a success. Helen Lucas and Helen McKeen are now rehearsing for sophomore show to be presented on April 13. Ruth Schlobohm has made the highest grades in the freshman class for the first semester.

We were delighted to have our district president, Miss Julia Dixon, spend March 15 with us. She arrived in time for our chapel exercises. Mary Sanders, president and Geraldine Mason, president-elect took Miss Dixon to luncheon at the Garden City Hotel and during the afternoon she had conferences with various officers. That evening we had our bimonthly supper meeting and installation of officers. Miss Dixon gave us many helpful suggestions and we were all sorry to see her go.

ISABELLE K. BEINERT

25 March 1934

Engaged: Margaret Williamson to Herbert S. Reynolds jr. Ψ T, Cornell.

ALPHA LAMBDA Washington

We are sorry to lose Willie Clarey transfer from Alpha Nu and Beth Loomis of Beta Theta. Much to our enjoyment, several Thetas from Beta Upsilon chapter at the University of British Columbia have visited us.

Pledged: Mary Helen Williamson, Yakima, Washington. March 6, Mary Margaret Quigley was elected Y.W.C.A. vice-president.

The winter formal, a dinner dance, was March 9 at the Inglewood golf and country club. As usual, the actives, alumnae and chaperons had a marvelous evening.

Frances Hines, Margaret Ryan and Kay Turner graced the Junior Prom Fiesta committee. Frances, one of our most active girls, was also one of the members of the annual Junior Girls Vaudeville committee. Two other Thetas, Jeanne Burnaby and Betty McLaughlan were chorines in the same J.G.V. production. Nancy Coleman, former assistant director, was chosen for a singing part.

Our two basketball teams, one intramural, the other "just for fun" were almost triumphant. Baseball is coming up spring quarter. We hope a new resolution to take all the activities on the campus by storm and a new chart system with rewards will raise our score for activities. The new trio composed of Virginia Aetzil, Jean Bishop and Roberta Gillespie has made a name for itself by being asked to sing at Oval club affairs and at the Olympic Hotel.

BETTY McLAUCHLAN

Josephine Meissner Quigley (Mrs A. J.) has been appointed by the mayor to serve on the Board of the Seattle public library for a seven-year term.

Katherine Williams has been chosen one of the 13 Wampus "baby stars" for 1934 by the Western Association of motion picture advertisers.

ALPHA MU Missouri

February 17 the chapter initiated Helen Bean, Betty Byrne, Avis Green and Mary Catherine Atkins of Kansas City; Phyllis Brooks, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Sallie Frost, Plattsburg; Fain Goodson, Jacksonville, Texas; Marylyn Essig, St. Louis; Alida Belle Stone, Trenton. We were happy to have so many of our alumnæ with us for the banquet and initiation ceremony.

March 13 we presented our play in the intramural contest. Dorothy McNab directed it and the characters were portrayed by Betty Byrne, Phyllis Brooks, Frances Byers, Fain Goodson, June Kyger and Mary McDonald. It was entitled They're none of them perfect. We will not know the results yet as all the plays have not been given but we are hoping to rate the finals.

Being well represented in activities we are endeavoring to maintain high scholarship and social standards as well. We are starting a new study hall system using reward for good grades as well as punishment for failure to obey all the rules of the new routine.

March 2 Alpha Mu gave a dance at the chapter house and plans are under way for our spring formal May 12.

Sallie Frost is a candidate for military queen and Dorothy McNab for queen of Farmers Fair.

JUNE KYGER

27 March 1934

Married: Rachel Way to Hoyt Sherman. 2332 Neil av. apt. D., Columbus, Ohio.—Josephine Luck to R. Alvin Blackman. 1902 Washington av. Greenville, Miss.—Carolyn Dziaizko to Robert M. Odell, Mar. 13. 1139 Louisville st. St. Louis, Mo.

Born: To Mr and Mrs F. D. Patty (Alice Kurtz) a daughter.—To Mr and Mrs A. P. Ryland (Ethel Carnahan) a daughter, Tommie Brewer, Feb. 19.

ALPHA NU Montana

Initiation was February 4, for Edith Atkinson, Jean Evans, Katherine Flynn, Janice Koppe, Donne Stevens, and Anna Bea Tilzey. The morning of initiation a breakfast was given at the house for the new initiates with the pledges and town girls as guests. Founders'-day banquet was the same afternoon at the Florence Hotel with Ruth Wallace as toast-mistress.

The basketball team won the inter-group championship. The girls playing in the tournament were Marie Lasby, Jo Marsh, Margaret Breen, Catherine Breen, Donne Stevens, Jean Martinson, Jean Evans, Rosemary Reidy, and Alma Phelan. Marie Lasby was also on the freshman team.

Joan Wilson has a part in the Masquers' spring play, The Tavern by George M. Cohen.

The spring formal will be May 25. It will be preceded by a progressive dinner, the plans being made by Pearl Johnson, social chairman.

Jean Martinson is the new rushing chairman, and plans for next fall's rush week are already under way. An excellent opportunity for rushing offers itself in the guise of the spring track meet held in Missoula annually. The track meet breakfast for rushees will be in the house this year instead of the Country club.

Pledged: Marian Morse, Poplar, Montana, Jaqueline Shepard, Kansas City, Mo.

JANICE KOPPE

No date.

Married: Ethel Skulason to Edward Shope. 200 Burlington, Missoula, Mont.—Jane Chapple to John Crowder. Humble apts. Missoula, Mont.—Virginia Malloy to Mac Johnson, jr., Hardin, Mont.

Born: To Mr and Mrs Vincent I. Miller (Margaret Butler) a daughter, Marilyn Sue, Dec. 4, 1933. Mason apts. Bismarck, N.D.

New addresses: Irmgard Afflerbach Frey (Mrs E. H.) 260 Winthrop rd. West Englewood, N.J.

ALPHA XI Oregon

We have four old girls back at school spring term: Betty Holman, and Jane Miner, of Portland; Libby Crommelin, of Pendleton; and Helen Templeton, of Seattle, who, for the last two terms, has been attending the University of Washington.

In March, Miss Ann Mulheron, head librarian of the Portland library association, gave us practical suggestions in a talk on the establishment of our library.

Joy Snead is leaving this May for a trip around the world, and Evelyn Beebe has just returned to Portland after a year in Europe.

In Wedding Belles, a pageant given by the campus Y.W.C.A., Margaret Ann Smith was the old-fashioned bride, and Althea Peterson attendant to the modern bride. Cynthia Liljequist, journalism major, was chosen as the campus representative to address the Eugene Merchants on principles of salesmanship from the student-buyer's point of view. Peggy Chessman was the secretary of the A.W.S. Masked Ball, and publicity chairman for the Whiskerino Shuffle. Althea Peterson, Ann Chapman, and Peggy Chessman worked on the Gamma Alpha Chi fashion dance.

PEGGY CHESSMAN

29 March 1934

Married: Charlotte Eldridge to Harlow Davis, K Σ, in Mar.—Elizabeth Martin to Cecil Dayle French, Φ Δ Θ. 2616 N.E. 26th av. Portland, Ore.

ALPHA OMICRON Oklahoma

Initiated March 11, Helen Barnes (sister of Jeanette Barnes Monnett), Helen Focht (sister of Laura Focht Morgan), Ruth Darling (sister of Marietta and Elizabeth), Virginia Anderson, Margaret Ellen Randerson, Sue Schofield, Sally Virginia West, Charlotte Ann Davis all of Oklahoma City; Virginia Cox, Ft. Worth, Texas; Natalie Campbell, La Rue De Lana (sister of Marion De Lana Turner), Stella Louise Fisher, Miriam Jones, El Reno, Oklahoma; Evelyn Gray, Ponca City; Wanda Mae Hayes, Muskogee; Elizabeth Haney (daughter of Carrie Brydia Haney), Ada; Ruth Melton, Chickasha; Nancy Meents, Terrell, Texas; Ruth Owen (daughter of Nina Bessent Owen and sister of Jane), Norman, Oklahoma; Elinor Perry, Virginia Springer, Kansas City, Missouri; Mary Margaret Roberts, Newkirk, Oklahoma; Emma Lou Walker, Paris, Texas; Betty Henderson, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Evelyn Gray received the pin given to the girl with the highest scholastic average. Marietta Darling, out-going president of the chapter, who initiated her sister Elizabeth in October, also presided at this initiation when the third sister Ruth became a member. Alumnae present were Nina Bessent Owen, Carrie Brydia Haney, Marion De Lana Turner, Ina Johnson Kidl, Jeanette Barnes Monnett, Marjorie Paxton Larimore, Froma Johnson Johnson, Marie Hunter McMurray, Edna Bessent, Laura Focht Morgan, Eleanore Drennan.

The luncheon after initiation was a gay affair marked by the arrival of lovely flowers and gifts. Nancy Meents received the prize for the cleverest explanation "Why I Pledged Theta."

Theta succeeded in making great improvement in scholarship for the first semester. The assistance of the scholarship committee has proved invaluable to the chapter.

Marietta Darling was one of the six prominent students nominated for the Letzeiser medals presented in May to three girls whose eligibility is determined by their standing in scholarship and their participation in student activities. Margaret Jean Weldon, an art student, recently finished an elaborate mural for a wall panel in the Women's building. She has created a book plate for Alpha Omicron's library.

Patricia Kennedy (sister of Julia and Anna Blake) was pledged March 27.

Virginia Springer will be social chairman of W.A.A. next year.

The new initiates are planning a dance for the chapter April 21 at the Teepee, college shop.

ALPHA TAU Cincinnati

March 3 sixteen girls were initiated, the largest group on campus. They are: Helen Carruthers, Betty Gustetter, Mary Lou Jung, Betty Koolage, sisters, Dorothy Fitzgerald, Jane Head, Peggy Keys, Janet Lackner, Louise Morris, Alice Piper, Sophie Rhame, Albion Ritte, Betty Robinson, Dorothy Sanford, Jane Schrader, and Laura Taylor. After service at Marion Haffners home there was a banquet at Vernon Manor. Mrs Ethel Nickerson, former district president, was toastmistress. A member from each class gave a short speech on Theta life. The traditional scholarship ring and honor activity plaque were awarded. Betty Koolage received the ring and Sophie Rhame the plaque.

The pledges were presented, February 9, at a formal dance at the Queen City club.

We have moved into a new apartment and hope to be here permanently. With the $150 that the Mothers' club gave us we furnished a new living room. We had a tea for our mothers March 29, to show them how much we appreciated the money and interest shown in helping us fix our new apartment.

We have decided to have informal supper meetings once a month so that we can get together and have singing practice.

Jane Schrader won the lead in the Mummies last play, the first time a freshman has ever been given the leading part.

The Theta swimming team took first place despite the fact that there were only four girls on the team. The next meet is April 26.

A new group has been started on the campus composed of the ten leading freshman women as picked by the ten leading men on the campus. Theta had two girls chosen, Jane Schrader and Sophie Rhame.

Theta was well represented on the committees for Greek Games, largest activity of the year. Janet Koolage was junior chairman, Louise Eastman, chairman of the sophomores, Betty Koolage of applied arts, Betty Gustetter, chairman of the freshman dance interpretation. Betty Gustetter and Laura Taylor had the title leads.

The results of spring elections gave Janet Koolage the presidency of W.S.G.A., and Louise Eastman is its corresponding secretary. Marge Cowell is recording secretary of Y.W.C.A.

ALPHA PHI Newcomb

Our winter formal at West End Country club, February 17, was the success that everyone expects of a Theta dance. Elizabeth Rivers, Alpha Theta, May Thornton and Elizabeth Bailey, who were in school here last year, came to New Orleans for the dance.

Vassar Morelock reigned as queen in the Newcomus ball, held annually during the Carnival season in the dormitories. Among her maids were Doris Davis, Polly West and Irene Gayden selected as outstanding members of their dormitories.

Ruth Butt, sister of Kathleen Butt Black (Beta-Beta), was initiated February 16.

We are planning to commemorate the founding of Alpha Phi chapter at Newcomb twenty years ago with a house party the weekend of April 21, at the Biloxi hotel, Biloxi, Mississippi. We have asked Angela Dexlin, one of our most active and interested alumnae, to act as chaperon for the house party.

Connie Meyer was elected president of the Student Council. Catherine Colvin was elected president of the senior class and a member of Alpha Sigma Sigma, senior honorary. Doris Davis will be president of the dormitories for next year.

LOUISE RICKS

ALPHA CHI Purdue

We enjoyed a visit from our District president, Mary J. Rieman, the weekend of March 16. She was entertained at a luncheon Saturday after which she met and talked with the various classes. That evening she attended a campus dance. Chapter meeting was held Sunday morning at which she offered us many helpful and useful suggestions. We were sorry to see Miss Rieman leave and we greatly appreciated the help and inspiration she gave us during her brief stay.

Edith Gregory played an important rôle in Gas Playshop's most recent production. Jane Shearer was elected to Scribe, national journalistic honorary for women. Mary Louise Lustig was appointed chairman of the election committee in W.S.G.A. while the Faculty-Student Relations committee will be headed by Lura Sherry. Helen Hall is in charge of the Activities committee. We are extremely proud of our home economics students. Lura Sherry was awarded the Omicron Nu medal for being the most outstanding home economics student in her freshman year. She was also elected secretary of the Virginia C. Meredith club, a campus society for co-eds taking home economics. Esther Elzy is the new president of this club. Peggy Hiner and her escort led the Sophomore Cotillion. Jean Adkins was elected to Anonian, national literary society, and Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary. Lucia Miller was elected to the Philalethian, literary society. Mary Jane O'Mara's name is included on our list of distinguished students.

We are happy to announce the pledging of Betty Baur from Eaton, Indiana.

Our spring formal under the direction of Elizabeth Meisinger will be April 14 at the chapter house.

ALPHA OMEGA Pittsburgh

University of Pittsburgh held its spring rushing season this year on February 22, 23, 24, and Alpha Omega gave a ribbon tea for eleven girls March 4. The first evening of rushing we had a supper party and a Theta Theata, where our alumnæ furnished most of the entertainment. February 23, we had a luncheon at the chapter house. At this luncheon, we had a man from one of the downtown department stores to cut silhouettes of each of the rushees. Friday evening featured the Theta Palmer Hotel, with a floor show, regular check room, and an orchestra for dancing. Saturday morning we all went out to a lodge for a hunt breakfast, and that afternoon we gave a chocolate party. A "'round the world" progressive dinner was given Saturday night, with the actives and the rushees visiting London, Paris, and Hawaii, and back to the chapter house for coffee.

March 5 we pledged Bettie Anderson, Nancy Arnold, Mary Alice Bast, Virginia Boyd, Frances Calhoun, Dorothy Jane Crock, Mary Louise Dowling, Helen Goodman, Patsy Graff, Dorothy Holbrook, and Eleanor Milliken (cousin of Lois).

We gave a dance at the chapter house March 17. April 6 we will entertain the pledges at our annual spring formal at the Longue Vue Country Club, with Ruth Feucht in charge.

Marjorie Bernatz, Ruth Feucht, and Jane Mauzey served on the Military Ball committee. Jane Mauzey is also a committee member for the Spring Festival sport dance. Helen Hoeveler was in charge of a recent junior class tea for mothers of the class members. Patsy Graff and Jane Mauzey were recently made members of Meda, scholastic honors organization.

By the time we write our next letter we shall be fully settled in the new house which our alumnæ organization has purchased.

SALLY SANDERSON

BETA BETA Randolph-Macon

Initiated, February 24, Sue Butt, Margaret Wilson, Ellen Briggs, Bettie Taylor, Ann Fairleigh, Jean Davies, Joan Davies, Virginia Johnson, Josephine Marchman, and Margaret Thompson.

Margaret Thompson received the scholarship cup given each year to the pledge who attains the highest scholarship. She is also on the Dean's list which is made up of those students having the highest averages. Ellen Briggs received the activity cup for having shown the greatest interest in activities.

Louise Mallory was elected by the student body to be Maid of Honor in the May Court, and Helen Gauger is an attendant in the May Court. Barbara Laylin is next year's president of Panhellenic.

Barbara Laylin and Myra Phillips were in the annual Spring Dance Recital, and Barbara danced a solo in one of a group of three dances. She is in charge of the publicity for the spring play of Sock and Buskin, dramatic club. Myra Phillips is in charge of the Faculty Take Off to be presented as a part of the senior minstrel.

Among the freshmen in charge of committees for the decorations of Odd Day, Margaret Wilson, chairman of West Hall decorations; Margaret Thompson, chairman of Main Hall steps, and Josephine Marchman, chairman of the Odd Tree decorations.

The spring formal which was given by the college at the Oakwood Country club was a big success. Margaret Wilson, Ellen Briggs, and Jean Lancaster served.

MYRA PHILLIPS

No Date.

Married: Marion Shepherd to Paul D. Ambrose. 525 Cornelia av. Chicago, Ill.—Mary Anne Hall to William M. Anderson. 504 Carlisle st. Hanover, Pa.

BETA GAMMA Colorado State

February 18 Beta Gamma initiated Valeria Dorsey, Louise Laler, Helen McKelvey, of Denver; Barbara Anthony, Canon City; Caroline Edwards, Sterling; Mary Alice Hamilton, Lucille Oakes, Harriet Savage, Helen Tobiska, Ft. Collins; and Helen Larson, Wray. After initiation services actives and alumnae presided at a banquet honoring new initiates at a popular tea-room. Thelma Hicks was initiated February 28.

The annual mid-winter dance took place February 16. Being a Dice dance, the hall was decorated in cabaret style with huge mirror covered dice hung about the walls, and a false ceiling which during the evening opened to shower balloons, confetti, and serpentines on the dancers.

Since the beginning of the semester we have made it a practice to invite four instructors to dinner on one night of each week. The faculty members seem to enjoy these dinners, and the girls have a chance to become better acquainted with them outside of class.

Beth Mitton is to be president of the A.W.S. This also makes her a member of the student council as A.W.S. representative. Martha Trimble was chosen junior representative to A.W.S. council for next year. Charlotte Edwards is the new secretary of the sophomore class. In the recent women's swimming meet Lucille Oakes placed third in total points. Mary Alice Hamilton was elected to Scribbler's club and Charlotte Edwards to Euclidean club, mathematics honorary. On the Y.W.C.A. cabinet for next year are Martha Trimble, Betty Rae Baxter, and Barbara Anthony.

We take pleasure in announcing the pledging of Dorothy Glodt and Mary Lambert, both of Denver.

Plans for our house library are started, and the actives and alumnae are planning where it may best and most attractively be put in the house. We hope to build one that will be a credit to the chapter.

BARBARA ANTHONY

BETA DELTA Arizona

February 7, we pledged Eleanor Jones, Pasadena, California; Nancy Audette, Smith College; Joan Filmore, Cleveland, Ohio; and Myra Simmons, Chicago, Illinois.

February 18 we initiated Mary Baker, South Bend, Indiana; Charlotte Guy, San Diego, California; Frances Bing, Chicago, Illinois; Katherine Souers, Bisbee; Mary Ellen Ovens, Phoenix; Anna Jane Hill (daughter of Bess Van Valzah, Beta), Tucson; and Betzy Tuthill, Tucson. Initiation was followed by dinner at which the most outstanding pledge, Frances Bing, was awarded a pin.

The pledges gave their dance February 17, a formal at the Arizona Inn.

Theta was awarded the cup this year for selling the greatest number of Deserts. Lucy Todd was in charge of subscriptions for the house.

Anne Willis was elected to Kappa Omicron Phi, national economics honorary, and Mary Ellen Ovens to Delta Pi Sigma, national mathematics honorary.

The chapter was delightfully entertained at a Spanish picnic by Mrs. F. C. McCormick in the patio of her country home.

We were happy to have with us recently Mrs Folger Athearn, president of District VI, and Mrs Purd B. Wright, jr., Grand vice-president.

Jeannette Judson, Frances D'Arcy, and Betzy Tuthill were runners-up in the tennis tournament. Jeannette and her brother George won the mixed doubles. Frances was a member of the honor basketball team, and Virginia Young was elected golf sport leader for next year.

We are all fond of our new house-mother, Mrs Hugh E. Campbell. She is also house manager.

New addresses: Elizabeth Boulton Herndon (Mrs T. R.) c/o San Francisco Mines of Mexico, San Francisco del Oro, Chihuahua, Mexico.

In the Arizona Alumnus Quarterly eight Thetas were mentioned for winning the Freeman medal: 1920—Ellen Boulton (Herndon), 1921—Bertha Renaud (Koch), 1924—Helen Mahoney (Maney), 1925—Edith Burtis, 1928—Mildred Steward, 1929—Virginia Poindexter, 1930—Elizabeth Boulton (Herndon), 1932—Olga Butler.

BETA EPSILON Oregon State

The beginning of spring term finds Beta Epsilon busy with new school work and in the midst of rushing.

We are sorry that poor health keeps Carmen Case from being with us this term, but we are happy to have Helen Shrader back after almost a year's absence. Virginia Fendall was chosen Junior Prom queen. Isobel Slade and Helen Buchanan won the women's all-school badminton contest, and we are looking forward to seeing the plaque on our mantel place.

In spite of the fact that spring arrived in the middle of January here in Oregon and brought with it sunshine and flowers and warm, lazy days, Theta managed to keep up its scholastic standards. Betty Losse, Helen Ewing, Maxine Hornbeck, and Mary Katherine Johnson, made the honor roll.

We are looking forward anxiously to our treasure hunt and sports dance to be some time in May.

MARY KATHERINE JOHNSON

1 April 1934

Engaged: Betty Losse and Kieth Loken, B Θ Π.—Edith Parsons and William Johnson, Φ Γ Δ.

BETA ZETA Oklahoma State

We held initiation March 10 for: Charleyne Ellis, Pauls Valley; Beatrice Lewis and Nancy Richards, Tulsa; Douglas Smith, Oklahoma City, Kathryn Faught, Altus; Gertrude Steele (sister of Albertine), Okmulgee; and Mary Jane Price, Cushing.

We won the inter-group basketball tournament. Work has been started for the baseball and tennis teams which will compete with teams from other fraternities after spring vacation. The bridge team composed of Jettie Steckelberg and Virginia Wile has started practicing for the all-college tournament to be played soon.

Albertine Steele had one of the leading parts in the college production, The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife. Minor parts were played by Virginia Schulze and Mary Jo Taylor. Elisabeth Ann Steele and Doris Williamson were in the curtain-raiser, Two Slaterns and A King for the same play. Jane Darden took part in the Choral club concert. Douglas Smith, Gertrude Steele, Kathryn Faught, Elisabeth Ann Steele, Myrtis Thomas, and Elisabeth Ann Scott are to take part in the spring dance program presented by the Terpsichorean club. Margaret Parr was presented by the musical department in a pipe organ recital. She was assisted by Charleyne Ellis and Mary Katherine Smith. Geraldine Allen has been selected for the lead in the college operetta.

Elisabeth Ann Steele and Geraldine Allen have been elected to Theta Alpha Phi, dramatic honorary of which this school has the mother chapter.

Panhellenic has changed the rushing rules for the next year. Instead of the pre-rush date and three dates, there will be four regular dates. We are planning a rush party for the Inter-Scholastic meet to be held the first week in May.

BETA ETA Pennsylvania

Beta Eta held initiation, February 24, at Mary Louise Fox's house in Cynwyd. Emily Campion (sister of Louise, Alpha Delta), Jean Francksen, Dorothy Hastings, Ingrid Nylin, and Alison Rountree were the initiates. The ceremony was followed by a banquet at the college club in Philadelphia. Jean Francksen was presented with the scholarship ring for having the highest average among the pledges.

While Miss Dixon, our District president, was visiting us we gave a tea, March 16. The next day the new officers had short conferences with her. We all enjoyed her visit.

Ruth Atkinson is on the nominating committee for W.S.G.A. Betty Townsend is on the junior class nominating committee for senior president. She is also assistant manager of Bowling Green. Jean Lutz was elected to Eta Sigma Phi the Latin honorary.

March 12, the seniors gave a dinner at the house, which was so successful that the juniors repeated the feast, March 26.

March 29 we all leave for a much longed for week at Stone Harbor, New Jersey. It has always been a grand vacation and we hope that it will send us back full of pep and feeling fit.

BETA THETA Idaho

February 10, we pledged Marguerite Manion, Firth, and Orine Hardman, Peck. Initiation will take place April 15. The new pledges will not be initiated until the end of the first semester of next year.

For the second consecutive semester Theta has won the semester scholarship cup, with the highest group average of any women's institution on the campus. If we win it next semester we have the privilege of keeping it.

Dorothy Preuss was elected to Phi Upsilon Omicron, national Home Economics honorary; Dorothy Ward was elected to Curtain, a local dramatic society; Anna Sweely and Carol Campbell have reached the finals in the intramural debates; and Elizabeth Stickney was on the Varsity debate team opposing the University of Washington in a non-decision debate. Four of the ten girls chosen for the Rifle team are Theta pledges. They are: Charlotte Kennedy, Rema Walters, Orine Hardman, and Anna Sweely.

Our formal spring dance date is May 5.

Annie Snow, pianist, gave her graduate recital March 6.

Newly elected campus officers from Beta Theta are: Helen Winkler, secretary of the sophomore class; Carol Campbell, president of the W.A.A.; and Helen Winkler, secretary of the W.A.A.

Helene Haller, an alumna at Saint Maries, Idaho, presented the chapter with a two year subscription to The Readers Digest. We are delighted with the gift.

ELIZABETH NAIL

29 March 1934

Married: Marjorie Mac Vean to Edward L. Douglass,  $\Sigma$  X, Oct. 14, 1933.

Born: To Mr and Mrs Elmer F. Anderson (Jean Little) a son, John David, Mar. 5.

BETA IOTA
Colorado

Of the five girls in the Players' club play, Holiday, three were Thetas, Barbara Hunt, who had the lead, and Dorothy Richardson and Roberta Mathis.

Our freshman class presented an act entitled Syncopated Justice in the women's league vaudeville this year.

Eloise Griffin is a member of the committee to plan C.U. Day. Jane Shingle, the only girl on Colorado University's debating team, has taken honors this year.

We felt honored to have as a luncheon guest recently, the prominent author, Courtney Riley Cooper. Mr Cooper, who had stopped in Denver on an extensive tour in search of material for writing, is an uncle of Margaret Bruderlin's.

This spring we are planning a luncheon for the Mothers' club, a buffet supper for the Denver alumnae, who have been so helpful this winter in rushing, and our annual party for the children of the university faculty.

DOROTHY RICHARDSON

28 March 1934

Married: Rae Blackmer to Lowell Throckmorton. Hooker, Okla.

Born: To Mr and Mrs Ray Linder (Elizabeth Hamilton) a son, Howard Peter.

BETA KAPPA Drake

February 3 we pledged Alice Cupps (sister of Helen) and Dorothy Drake.

Initiation was March 11 for Jeanette Foley, Nadine Ingleman (sister of Helen) and Helen Sedgwick.

For the twelfth time in 13 semesters Theta has won the highest scholastic standing. Doris Mackaman is wearing the crested bracelet which we give for the highest grade average within the fraternity.

Five Thetas are beauty candidates: Lois Demmon, Frances Ewing, Jean Hardie, Nadine Ingleman and Barbara Morken. Lois Demmon, Betty Crouch and Bonnie Williams are among the girls nominated by "D" men for the sweetheart of the Relays dance. March 19 the pledges entertained at stunt-night. The evening began with a dinner at the house followed by a scavenger hunt and later the stunt. Margaret Marshall is one of the candidates in Who's Who election. The winners will be announced in the yearbook. Grades, activities, leadership and popularity determine the winners. Frances Morehouse was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Frances Wragg and Jean Hardie were elected to Zeta Phi Eta, national professional speech arts society. Joella Brice is a new member of Junior dance club. She has one of the leading rôles in The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde to be presented April 11, 12 and 13. Charlotte Joiner had the leading comedy rôle in The Black Flamingo presented recently. She was elected to Theta Alpha Phi, dramatic honorary. Frances Ewing, Charlotte Joiner, Frances Morehouse, Charlotte Reed and Eleanor Rider were elected to Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary in the college of education, March 25. LuVern Gray is new Y.W.C.A. vice-president. Frances Morehouse is the Y.W.C.A. representative to W.S.G.A.

We have purchased new furniture for the chapter house including two chairs, a floor lamp, table, two oriental rugs and a combination radio and victrola.

April 7 the alumnae are planning a formal dance to be given in our honor.

BETA MU Nevada

March 12, the chapter inaugurated buffet suppers to be every other Monday for all members and pledges. They started successfully and it is hoped they will do much to foster a congenial spirit and encourage singing Theta songs.

February 3 initiation was held for Annabel Arentz, Simpson; Jeanne Cardinal, Zoe Hampson, Gardnerville; Betty Jane McCulloch, Fernley; Margaret Place, Berkeley, California; Elenor Garrison, Sparks; Leone Clark, Ruth Palmer, Mary Catherine Blakely, Reno.

Margery Mullen was chosen Honorary Major of R.O.T.C. for 1934-35. Virginia Wheeler was chosen Mackay Day Queen by Bing Crosby, from twelve photographs of the most attractive girls on campus. Helen Lewis played the title rôle in Campus players production of Mrs Bumpstead-Leigh, in which Margery Mullen and Paula Bradshaw also took part. Jean McIntyre has the feminine lead for Tommy. Betty Howell was elected president of Y.W.C.A. succeeding Florence Diskin. Dorothy Phillips is social service chairman, and Catherine Nichols is art chairman on the Cabinet. Catherine Dondero, Margaret Place, Dorothy Phillips, and Ellen Creek, Theta team, won the interfraternity rifle competition, adding an attractive trophy to Beta Mu's collection.

March 27 and 28 Mrs Purd B. Wright, Grand vice-president, and Mrs Folger Athearn, District president, visited us. We gave a tea in their honor.

Virginia Wheeler, Margaret Martin, and Mary Williams were elected to Phi Kappa Phi.

February 23 the chapter had an informal dance and March 16 a "Gingham ball" carrying out the Sunbonnet Baby motive in programs and decorations.

Middlebury, Utah.

BETA NU Florida

What a round of parties these pledges have given us! First, it was a tea and a skit February 12. Then it was breakfast in bed, for all actives February 18, the first time that's happened since we all bid fond farewells to our happy homes Christmas. Next came a dinner an "Tacky party" February 23. Because of the closeness of the competition the awarding of a prize for the best (or worst) costume was eliminated.

Not only the pledges but the school as a whole has been trying to brighten these days before quarterly exams. February 22 Yasha Davidoff, Russian basso-cantante, hailed as premier of Russian Grand Opera at the age of twenty, sang for our pleasure. Next came the Mercer Glee club February 24, followed by Ruth Page, dancer, February 26. On March 2, came Richard Halliburton, the playboy adventurer, to thrill feminine hearts. Next, Sherman Rogers, editor of Liberty, came with all his forceful personality to put new life in drooping spirits. Lastly, to top the rest, came Horowitz himself to make our piano do things it had never done before. The mouths of the student body dropped open at his first note, and were closed only with difficulty at his last resounding chord.

March 10 brought initiation. New names on the chapter roll are: Eleanor Harris, Margaret Reedy, Peggy Paradise, Mary Veach, Mary Waller McCormick, Barbara Bandy, Beatrice Monroe, Miami; Mary Einnes, Alachua; Virginia Hamilton, Lakeland; Mary Virginia Lamb, Palatka; Mary Ann Hills, Jacksonville; and Jeanne Osborne, Tallahassee. The next morning we honored the new initiates at breakfast at the Dutch Kitchen.

EVELYN BALLARD

BETA XI California at L.A.

The new semester began with the pledging of Isabella Hutchings, Eleanor Dixon, and Emily Sedgwick. March 18 Eleanor Anton, Ann Craven, Eleanor Dietrich, Dorothy Belle Dugan, Ruth Heineman, Barbara Mott, Kate Vossburg, Frances Blackman, Carolyn Church, Mary Phil Dillon, Janet Knox, Ann Miller, Adele Redfield, and Helen Wright were initiated, and on Monday the new initiates followed the tradition of flying kites. Eleanor Dietrich won the lemon pie, awarded to the girl who kept her kite in the air the longest.

Mrs Wright, Grand vice-president, and Mrs Athearn, District president, were our guests March 8 and 9. As Mrs Wright had not visited in California before, we attempted to show her the points of interest in and about Los Angeles, also taking her to La Venta Inn at Palos Verdes for luncheon.

Many faculty members attended the dinner Theta gave March 21 for the Dean of women, Mrs Laughlin.

Janet Locky and Sue Noble, Phi, Sue Mosely and Betty Buchner, Alpha Lambda, are spending their Easter vacations with us while we are struggling to prepare for mid-term examinations with no respite whatever. Most of our spare time is spent in knitting and in acquiring excellent tans at the beach. As usual we plan to rent a house in Balboa for the spring vacation which comes in May.

CATHERINE VAN WART

23 March 1934

Married: Alice F. Kelly to Merwin D. Rayner, Mar. 26. 80 Browne st. Brookline, Mass.

BETA OMICRON

Iowa

Beta Omicron initiated nine girls

March 25, Katherine

Boiler and Janet Wood of Des Moines, Elaine Bjorklund of Olwein, Lillian Des Marias of Grundy Center, Winifred Fowler of Eldora, Audrey Lea Ivins of Cedar Rapids, Dorothy Meiras of Le Mars, Pearl Travis of Iowa City, and Martha Walker of Clinton.

We are happy to announce the pledging of Helen Rohrbacher and Dorothy Pownall, Iowa City, March 16 and Catherine Huey, Maple Wood, April 4.

The chapter is planning an afternoon reception to be given April 15 for our chaperon, Miss Falck.

Genevieve Parker, Winifred Fowler, Jane Stoddard, and Betty Taylor have been elected to head some of the freshman orientation groups. Helen Rohrbacher will be an assistant.

Our Iowa City alumnae entertained actives and pledges at a buffet supper March 11 in the home of Mrs. Eugene Gillmore.

CAROLYN COAD

4 April 1934

Born: To Dr and Mrs Lee (Alyce Showver) Robert Allen, Mar. 29.—To Dr and Mrs Earnst McFarland (Margaret McCulley) Sandra, Mar. 14.

New addresses: Mabel Crooks Monson (Mrs E. C.) Crawfordsville, Iowa. Mrs Monson writes that they have two sons, Donald Henry, born in Dec. 1930, and Russell Wonderly, born in Feb. 1934.

Married: Evelyn Mary Lawther to Ralph W. Mock. 938 Home Park blvd. Waterloo, Iowa.

Mrs Eugene Richter (Helen Husted) ofavenport visited the chapter house recently.

Margaret Wilcox of Oskaloosa returned to assist with initiation Mar. 25.

Irene Klinger is at home on Knollwood dr. in Cedar Rapids after an extended visit in Calif.

BETA PI Michigan State

Among those who did not return for spring term are Marion Lewis who graduated at the end of winter term, and Jane Stockton who is attending Merrill Palmer School in Detroit. Evelyn Robinson returned after a year's absence.

Wilma Wagenvoord was elected president of Y.W.C.A. and sophomore representative for A.W.S., and Laura Hunt, freshman representative for A.W.S.

March 14, the alumnae entertained the freshmen at a St. Patrick's dinner followed by a play. March 11, the Theta boy-friends were entertained at a supper prepared by the girls. Fraternity songs were sung and after supper a few who belonged to the secret organization known as the Shell Club held an initiation ceremony for the others.

Dorothy Jane Balyeat visited us for a few days at the beginning of spring term.

BETSY THOMAN

3 April 1934

Born: To Mr and Mrs Melvin Cole (Margaret Strong) a daughter, Elizabeth Ann, Nov. 14, 1933.—To Mr and Mrs Linton Carter (Verlynn Moore) a daughter, Verlynn, Nov. 26, 1933.—To Mr and Mrs O. L. DeBolt (Maxine McNames) a daughter, Barbara Ann, Nov. 6, 1933.

New addresses: Ruth VanWinkle Graham (Mrs Donald) 120 S. Fairview av. Lansing, Mich.—Helen Anderson Lawler (Mrs G. M.) 5949 Magnolia av. Chicago, Ill.—Esther Darling McLandress (Mrs R. Mabel Tussing Barron (Mrs Walter) spent a winter month in Florida.

BETA RHO

Duke

The scholarship standing for the fall semester was: Alpha Epsilon Phi, 26.00 quality points; Alpha Delta Pi, 24.88; Pi Beta Phi, 24.60; Kappa Alpha Theta, 24.42; followed by the six other sororities. Seven Thetas made the junior-senior dean's list with a B average; two sophomores, the honor list; six pledges, the freshman list. Chapter scholarship bracelets were awarded Sarah Thompson, and Jane Williams, pledge. Celestine Beamer was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Sarah Thompson was elected treasurer of student government and Eleanor Tomkins, chairman of social standards. Kathrine Upchurch is new treasurer of the Y.W.C.A.

Initiated March 3: La Verne Dawson, Kathrine Upchurch, Elizabeth Sasser, Anne Louise Reist, Lucy Rauschenberg, Charlotte Marshall, Catherine Kirkpatrick, Frances Childs, Betty Faires, Georgianna Lamson, Constance Patten, and Jane Williams. Following initiation there was a banquet at the Washington Duke Hotel.

March 4 alumnae entertained the initiates at breakfast at the Erwin Coffee Shop, climaxing a happy week.

Mary Carolyn Seed and Margaret Cunningham were elected to Delta Phi Rho Alpha, national athletic fraternity, and Ethel White to Chi Delta Phi, national English fraternity. Susan Sheppard was chosen Duke May queen, the first in Beta Rho. Catherine Fleming will be her maid-of-honor. Sarah Williams, Eleanor Tompkins, and Emily Abel took part in the recent Quadrangle Pictures' birthday celebration. Theta was represented in the annual dance exhibition. Nancy Leitch performed a solo tap dance. Emily Abel had the lead in Priestly's Dangerous Corner, Duke Players' spring production.

The chapter enjoyed the visit of Mrs T. T. Moore, district president, last month. A tea was given in her honor.

CATHARINE POWE

31 March 1934

Martha Vance and her mother, also a Theta, visited on the campus in March.

Sarah Cady Patten (Mrs Walter), Alpha Epsilon, was present at the initiation of her daughter Constance. She spoke at the banquet following.

Married: Bennie Purvis to Liston Pope,  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ , Feb. 3. High Point, N.C.

BETA SIGMA
Southern Methodist We proudly announce a B average in scholarship for the first semester. Alpha Delta Pi had a slightly better B average than we did, beating us out for first place, by inches.

Our short mid-year rush week terminated with the pledging of: Virginia Lyons, Allie Jo Webb, Maybeth Smyth, Virginia Vaught, of Dallas, and Izene Brooks of Tyler.

We had our Founders'-day banquet February 10 at the Dallas Country club. The alumnae had complete charge of the banquet and certainly had it arranged well. Mrs Fred Puckhaber, president of the Dallas alumnae chapter, was toastmistress. A program was given by Ruth Brown and Helen Fae Conner, and we all entered in the singing of Theta songs. About seventy-five alumnae, actives and pledges attended.

We have been honored with a visit from our national alumnae secretary, Mrs Paul Kircher. She stayed with us several days and met the alumnae as well as the actives and pledges. We appreciate the helpful suggestions that she gave us while she was with us.

Initiation was March 9 for: Doris McCommas, Dorothy McCommas, Marie Askew, Nancy Dolphe, Marianne Geer, Merene Gladden, Virginia Fryar, Margot Oldham, Stella Syptert, Frances Thomas, and Dorothy Wathen.

We gave our annual formal dinner dance, March 16 at the Dallas Country club. The table was set in the form of the Greek letter Theta and was decorated with mounds of spring flowers and gold candles. Representatives from each of the other fourteen sororities on the campus, and members of the fraternities attended. Lillian Earle Wilson was in charge of arrangements.

MARGUERITE BUCHANAN

29 March 1934

Married: Helen Kay Johnson to John Pierce Bloomer, Feb. 14. Belton, Tex.

New addresses: Christine Chitwood Luther (Mrs Z. B.) 3718 Fountain st. Amarillo, Tex.—LaFrey Beavers Thompson (Mrs Roger W.) 4101 Hawthorne st. Dallas, Tex.

BETA TAU Denison

March 17 Beta Tau initiated: Katherine Desmond, Corry, Pa.; Dorothy Dougan, Shaker Heights; Katherine Finfrock, Dayton; Dorothy Ford, Oak Park, Illinois; Betty Geffine, Lakewood; Ethel Hurley and Gertrude Lozier, Glen Ellyn, Illinois; Janet Hull (daughter of Mrs F. Irving Hull, Alpha Beta), Bronxville, New York; Marjorie Hunt, New York; Jean Ireland (daughter of Annette Bickford Ireland and sister of Patricia Ireland) Birmingham, Alabama; Elizabeth Lake (daughter of Edna Thornton Lake), and Agnes Sibbison, Cleveland; Bernice Lindberg, River Forest, Illinois; Virginia Lucas, Marysville, Missouri; Mary Jane Nesbitt, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Ruth Orcutt, Wyandotte, Michigan; Eleanor Potter, Wilmette, Illinois; Barbara Taylor, Granville; and Louise Wolfe, Mansfield.

At the initiation banquet Katherine Finfrock received the pledge award as most outstanding member of her pledge class. Virginia Lucas, Mary Jane Nesbitt, and Barbara Taylor shared evenly the scholarship prize for Theta pledges, provided so generously by Lorena Woodrow Burke. Thirty-two alumnae returned to enjoy the occasion.

During the first semester Theta gained first place in scholarship, led by three straight "A" students: Carlyn Ashley, Sally Menaull, and Louise Wagner.

Carlyn Ashley was elected vice-president of the senior class. In W.S.G.A. Constance Addenbrooke is senior member on judiciary; Katharine Kelly, junior representative; Anne Sisson, secretary; Louise Wagner, treasurer; and Ruth Orcutt, on the board of control of publications. Board members of the W.A.A. are Harriet Herron, head of volleyball; Louise Wagner, head of outing; Mary Jayne Bryan, head of golf; and Jean Lindstrom, secretary. Louise Wagner is music editor of the Denisonian, campus paper. In Y.W.C.A. Anne Sisson and Jane Young hold the positions of cabinet member and treasurer, respectively.

In a dance recital sponsored by Orchesis, March 22 and 23, Marjorie Hunt, Carlyn Ashley, Barbara Taylor, Katherine Finfrock, Louise Wagner, Constance Addenbrooke, Mary Jane Keeling, Anne Sisson, Anne Flory won distinction for Beta Tau. Marjorie Hunt showed especial skill in many leading rôles.

Barbara Taylor in basketball, and Jean Lindstrom, Jane Young, and Harriet Herron in volleyball, won positions on the All-Shepardson teams.

New rushing rules and a much-needed addition to the "little white house" constitute our most important plans for next year.

March 2, together with Delta Delta Delta and Alpha Omicron Pi, we held a Panhellenic dance. Our social calendar for the remainder of the year includes a spring formal, May 19, and a faculty tea.

JANE YOUNG

30 March 1934

Married: Florence Stewart to Milford Crevis-ton. Box 166, Niles, Mich.

New addresses: Gertrude D. Wilson Johnson (Mrs James M.) 3418 Benton blvd. Kansas City, Mo.—Beth Brower Swain (Mrs Robert) c/o United Printing Co. Mercedes, Tex.—Dorothy Kramer, 1677 E. 117th st. Cleveland, Ohio.

Born: To Dr and Mrs James L. Sagebeil (Velma Weisenbarger) a son, Richard Wallace.

Betty Bratten is one of the assistants of Dr Walter Simpson in the research department of the Miami Valley hospital, Dayton, Ohio.

Katherine Hunt returned to Dayton last summer after three exciting years of teaching in the Philippines.

BETA UPSILON British Columbia

After working hard for some time a Panhellenic Committee, with Jean Henderson as chairman has drawn up a new set of rushing rules for the women's fraternities on our campus. We will now only have three weeks of concentrated rushing in the fall term, instead of the old system, which meant rushing all the year round.

February 16 was the date of our spring formal at the Point Grey golf club. Before the dance we had a dinner at the Georgian club. It added much to our week end to have our District president Betty Robb as our visitor, and also Florence Fahey and Ruth Lawton, a Delta Gamma.

March 14 we initiated Nancy Islip.

Mary Thompson was convener for the ticket committee for the Co-ed ball, the annual ball at which the women students are the hosts. Muriel Christie was the convener for the dance at the Grouse Mountain Chalet given by the Varsity Outdoor club following the first Western Inter-Collegiate ski meet to be held on the Pacific coast. Muriel is vice-president of the club.

Margaret Winter won first prize for the most attractive costume at Hi-Jinx, the party given by the W.U.S. for women only. Her costume was that of a Dutch girl, she had even long flaxen braids and wooden shoes.

HELEN TRAPP

21 March 1934

Born: To Mr and Mrs Beaton (Elizabeth Douglas) a son.—To Mr and Mrs A. Gross (Marjorie Kirk) a daughter, Mar. 7.—To Mr and Mrs H. Catteral (Grace Teetzal) a daughter, Mar. 12.

Engaged: Lilian Mather to Patrick O'Reilly Bird.—Hester Cleveland to Flying Officer C. R. Dunlap, Royal Canadian Air Force.—Alice Smith to Ralph Argue, Z Ψ.

Jean Whaley is training in the Vancouver General hospital, and Evelyn Trapp is in St. Paul's hospital.

BETA PHI Penn State

Our District president, Miss Julia Dixon, was the welcome guest of Beta Phi the weekend of March 10. She urged us to stress scholarship and activities, and was interested in our new library. In her honor, the pledges prepared and served a breakfast Sunday morning, to which town and alumnæ Thetas were invited.

Second semester rushing has received the affirmative vote of all but one fraternity on campus, and will be considered by Panhellenic council and the College Senate Committee on student welfare immediately after Easter.

Grace Baer and Helen Taylor again have leads in the Thespian show, My Stars, to be given April 13, the night of Interfraternity ball. Jane Parker also has a lead, and Helen Hinebauch, Isabelle Loveland and Frances Turner are in the dancing chorus. Isabel Rhein is costume manager. Nellie Gravatt and Catherine Miller had minor parts in the Penn State Players' presentation of Tolstoi's Redemption last month. Beta Phi will hold spring initiation early in April for Betty Welles, Wyalusing; Margaret Lewis, Couderport; Florence Venable (daughter of Florence Moore Venable, Alpha Tau), State College; Dorothy Anderson, Butler; Georgetown Purnell, Bellefonte; Mary Jane Thompson, Ellwood City; and Mary Milholland, Wilkinsburg.

Mary McFarland and Grace Baer were recently elected to Phi Kappa Phi.

Mr and Mrs Robert Bernreuter (Shirley Buell, Alpha Mu) have designed an attractive bookplate for the fall initiates' house gift.

Mrs P. X. Rice and Elizabeth Diffenderfer, house librarian, have received ten dollars and about forty-five books in response to requests sent to Beta Phi alumnae for additions to our new library.

Frances Turner was recently elected to the junior women's editorial staff of the Penn State Collegian.

FRANCES TURNER

27 March 1934

Married: Marjorie E. Smith to P. C. Edmundson, jr. 5854 Forbes st. Pittsburgh, Pa.—Isobel Hausen to Donald Floyd Herwick, A X P, June 10, 1933. 1012 S. Pittsburgh st. Connellsville, Pa.

BETA CHI Alberta

We were fortunate to have Mrs F. H. Bathke, our District president, for our Founders'-day banquet, January 27, at the MacDonald Hotel. We were all inspired by her address on our Founders and Kappa Alpha Theta. The chapter presented a skit of burlesqued pantomime which proved so popular that it was given three times on the campus. The alumnae also presented a clever skit of the Theta seeking her M.A.

January 28, the chapter had a tea in honor of Mrs Bathke. Open house was held all day for outside members and alumnae. The chapter gave a tea to the faculty, February 25. We all enjoyed this personal contact with our professors. March 8 Hazel Sutherland entertained the girls in the chapter house at a St. Patrick's dinner and bridge. We must admit that the bridge rather suffered while we thoroughly enjoyed ourselves.

March 17 the chapter gave a dinner dance at the private ballroom of the new Corona

Hotel. The tables were attractively decorated in black and gold and were lighted by gold candles. Masses of balloons hung from the ceiling. The orchestra played our Theta songs and the party was very congenial and peppy.

Final examinations begin April 16, and as a result our social life has ended for the season. We are losing four seniors this spring, Nancy French, Marion Clark, Mary Thomson and Kathleen Donaldson. We will be under a great handicap without them in the rushing next fall, especially since this is the year of transition from first to second year rushing.

HELEN HENDERSON

21 March 1934

Married: Irma Burkholder to Timothy Burns, A K E. Mirror Alta.

New address: Ruth Robertson Peto (Mrs Frank H.) Suite 9 Ritzmore apts. Ottawa, Ont. Canada.

BETA PSI McGill

Mrs B. Grasett, Grand Treasurer, paid Beta Psi an enjoyable visit at the beginning of March. She discussed with the chapter its difficulties and also made some helpful suggestions to the Panhellenic delegates at a tea held in her honor. A few weeks later, our District president, Mrs. Sinclair, found time to visit us for a few days and to receive the guests at the chapter's dance. This social function, the first of its kind in Beta Psi history, was held at Jean Reid's house on February 23, and proved successful, with the majority of members present. Another new venture this year was an informal faculty tea in March which was very enjoyable and is to be repeated.

Beta Psi has had a die of the Kappa Alpha Theta crest made for use in the McGill Annual, and a picture of the chapter is being taken this year. The graduating class is composed of Mary Grant, Lorraine How, Eleanor Jones, Georgie Morris, Helen Savage, and Relief Williams. We shall feel the loss of so many college members but wish them every success in their careers. The most important McGill Panhellenic rulings for the fall rush set a pledge-day within one week after the returns, allow men at rushing parties, and establish the beginning of rushing as the first Sunday in October, with the first rushing day's entertainment to be held within the city, and freshman pledging forbidden.

Jean Reid won acting honors in the recent production of The Princess and the Swineherd, and members participating in the English department play Bury Fair are Olive Sanborn, who has a leading rôle, Nancy MacKay, Eleanor Hickey and Jean Reid. Olive Sanborn is also taking part in a production of Molière's Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme.

MARGERY TRENHOLME

26 March 1934

Engaged: Gwen Hall to John Symington.

BETA OMEGA Colorado College

Pledged February 5: Ernestine Stroup, Colorado Springs; Fannie Bulkley, Fort Lupton; and Mary Suzanne Warren, Denver. We were sorry to lose Eleanor Young who graduated at the end of the first semester.

We attended the Founders'-day banquet in Denver, February 9, for all the Colorado Thetas. Mrs Weaver visited the chapter in February to talk over the financial end of our lodge-to-be.

March 3 nine initiates joined our ranks: Ruth Ann Johnson, Anne Florey, Ruth Mary Webster, Louise Kirkpatrick, Anne Espe, Miriam Rothgerber, Martha Statton, Lucille Hampton, and Marion Marriott. Initiation was followed by a formal banquet and dancing at the Broadmoor Hotel.

Anne Espe led the freshman class in scholarship last semester with a 95 average. Marion Marriott is a member of Koshare dramatic club. She played the part of Virginia in their latest production, The tavern, and Margaret Utterback was costume manager. Thetas who danced in the Colonial Ball minuet are Marybel Poer, LaRue Wiley, Elizabeth Evans, Katherine Ragle and Ernestine Stroup. Lucille Hampton was elected to the Quadrangle Association governing board. Freshmen in W.A.A. include Martha Statton, Ann Espe and Fannie Bulkley.

Mary Jean MacDonald, Elizabeth Evans, and Anne Florey are among the twelve contestants for beauty honors. They modelled in a fashion show at the junior prom.

March 22, the chapter, alumnae, mothers and various other people assembled at the site of our proposed new lodge to watch Lucille Swartz turn up the first shovel full of earth. It was a thrilling moment for Beta Omega, and we are praying for good weather so that building operations will not be delayed.

ELIZABETH RAYNER

27 March 1934

New addresses: Elizabeth M. Kennedy, Log Cabin, Colo.

GAMMA GAMMA Rollins

The chapter held its annual spring dance at the Woman's club March 28. The ballroom was decorated with spring flowers and ferns, while two soft blue lights gave an effect of moonlight upon the dance-floor. The orchestra, from Miami, was conceded to be the best heard on campus this year.

Dorothy Parmley has had two more of her poems published and is on the staff of the college literary magazine, the Flamingo. She also has been chosen for the lead in the forthcoming production of Beggar on Horseback.

Sally Limerick is running for the editorship of the Flamingo. She has proved herself competent in one of the business positions this year.

The Yale Glee club was here over the weekend of March 30 and the chapter had an open house Friday evening. Punch was served and dancing was enjoyed by all.

Anna Jeanne Pendexter was runner-up for the college golf championship. Other members on the golf team are: Alice Batten, Jeannette Lichtenstein and Ann Lawry. They will meet neighboring clubs in competition during April and May.

Nancy Gantt has been forced to leave school because of poor health and the entire chapter hopes that she will be with us again before the college year is over.

Mrs Banta and Mrs Grasett are going to pay us a visit on the ninth of April. The chapter has planned a tea in their honor and welcomes an opportunity to entertain national officers for the first time since its installation last year.

Los Angeles alumnae chapter .....Loans
Committee: Chairman: Grace W. Lavayea, 836 S. Irolo st. Los Angeles, Calif.

Committee: Corresponding secretary: Helen Pratt, 915 Victoria
av. Los Angeles, Calif.

Committee: Financial secretary: Ray Hanna, 3308 W. 23d st.
Los Angeles, Calif.

Washington, D.C. alumnae .....Fellowship

Pittsburgh alumnae .....Research

Indianapolis alumnae .....Publicity

St. Louis alumnae .....Ways and means

Houston alumnae .....Ways and means

Portland alumnae .....Ways and means

Undergraduate loans: For information regarding undergraduate loans, and application blanks, address the corresponding secretary, Helen Pratt.

Graduate grants: For information regarding fellowships, address
Washington, D.C. alumnae chapter.

Loans are made for $50 and larger amounts. Interest is 4 per cent payable annually. Security is required, i.e. endorsement of note by two financially responsible parties. Loans are payable within two years after the beneficiary has left college. Payments may be made in monthly installments. A personal letter explaining fully any unusual circumstances will greatly assist the committee in a prompt consideration of an application for a loan.

All checks, whether for interest, loans, or gifts to the Fund, should be made payable to Los Angeles alumnae of Kappa Alpha Theta and sent to the Financial secretary, Miss Ray Hanna, 3308 W. 23rd st. Los Angeles, Calif.

A gift to the Fund is a gift to Kappa Alpha Theta in perpetuity. It is never spent; it will come in and go out innumerable times; and its value to the present and future members and to the fraternity as a whole is incalculable.

RECOMMENDED HOTELS

ALUMNÆ chapters recommend these hotels or clubs throughout the United States for the use of traveling Thetas. In these hotels a register or index of the Thetas resident in those cities is maintained, such register being available for use by fraternity guests. We trust that our members will avail themselves of the plan, will find the recommended hotels satisfactory, and the plan will bring Thetas together to their mutual satisfaction and enjoyment.

THE BALFOUR BLUE BOOK

Fraternity Badge Price List
Sent Upon Request
To Prospective Purchasers

Leadership has always been characterized by the qualities of HONOR, STRENGTH, and INITIATIVE.

HONOR to hold tenaciously to our personal and business integrity.

STRENGTH to forge ever onward toward the goal of greater perfection in the quality of our product.

INITIATIVE to employ skillful workmen and modern ideas in manufacture.

... these are the dominant qualities that have made the L. G.
Balfour Company indisputable leader in the fraternity jewelry field.

There are always those who—falling short of these qualities—fail, and nurse their envy with unscrupulous assaults on the leader.

A company, firm in the conviction of its integrity must bear the brunt of such attacks with dignity—THE PENALTY OF
